Favor Widening Central Avenue To 100 Feet

AGREE UPON METHOD OF PROCEDURE AT MASS MEETING

Condemnation Proceedings to Be Instituted to Get Improvement

The "three-fold plan" of improving Central avenue was welded into a unit of action at last night's highly enthusiastic meeting of the Central Avenue Improvement association, held in the Glendale Union High school auditorium with President Charles B. Guthrie presiding.

A completely overwhelming majority declared themselves in favor of widening to 100 feet, by the institution of condemnation proceedings to establish ten-foot setback lines to the right and left of the present 80-foot thoroughfare.

The outstanding feature of the meeting was the way opposition melted in the face of logic, as speaker after speaker rose and stated that while he or she had been one of the petition signers to block widening, the error of such action was now apparent.

Get Converted
Among those who took this attitude were J. Herbert Smith, Mrs. Winona Crawford and D. C. Bear, all being thoroughly converted to widening, at the close of the meeting.

John E. Paul, who circulated the petition of protest, explained that as his lot was only 43 feet on Elk avenue and 145 feet on Central, he would be greatly damaged by the setback. He was answered by A. G. Wheeler of the city engineer's office, who pointed out that in condemning property the referees appraise the value of that remaining to the owner after condemnation, and he is remunerated on this basis, an assessment on other property owners in the district being levied to cover such expenses.

It was brought out very clearly that condemnation proceedings would take from twenty months to two years, and that therefore, to have such an improvement ready by 1926, it would be necessary to start the proceedings at once. Mr. Wheeler also stated that condemnation was almost a necessity, it being next to impossible to get every property owner on the avenue to deed the necessary footage.

City Plunged In Darkness When All Juice Is Cut Off

Glendale reverted to the primitive lantern and kerosene lamp for a time last night when all electric current feeding the city from the Southern California Edison company was cut off.

The Eagle Rock station of the company, which normally supplies this city, had been cut out while workmen on a night shift were doing necessary repair work.

Line trouble developed at the same time near Van Nuys, and blew out two switches in the McNeil station near San Fernando which was supplying this city's "juice," consequently Glendale was plunged in darkness.

According to reports received this morning, Desk Sergeant Timmons on the night shift at police headquarters was the individual discommoded the most by the mishap. He stated confidentially that he answered several thousand telephone calls during the period from 11:10 to 11:40 o'clock, when the lights were out.

City Council Decides To Meet In Daytime

Deposed Governor Walton Is Indicted by Oklahoma Jury

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 23.—J. C. Walton, deposed governor of Oklahoma, was indicted by the Oklahoma county grand jury today. Eight true bills were returned against him.

One indictment charged a felony, that of stopping the Oklahoma legislature on September 26. The others were misdemeanors, charging padding of state payrolls, and one was a charge of intimidating officers.

Dr. A. E. Davenport, state health commissioner, and T. P. Edwards, the former governor's chauffeur, also were indicted and charged with a felony.

TOKIO AGAIN SHAKEN UP BY QUAKE

People Flee Into Streets But Damage Is Not Serious, Claim

By DUKE N. PARRY
For International News Service
TOKIO, Nov. 23.—The most severe earthquake since the disastrous temblors of September shook Tokio about 11:30 o'clock this morning, causing considerable excitement in the city of Tokio.

Some small buildings were slightly damaged by today's quake. The streets were filled within a few minutes with frightened Japanese and foreigners.

Populace Alarmed
Reports emanating from the Motokyo religious sect prophesying that another disastrous earthquake is coming tomorrow added generally to the apprehension of the populace despite the reassuring statements of Dr. Nakamura, head of the central meteorological bureau.

Dr. Nakamura declared positively that no more great earthquakes such as those which raked this city and Yokohama may be expected at this time.

CHANGE HOUR OF OFFICIAL SESSION TO MORNING

Every Thursday, Also First and Last Tuesdays Are Days Selected

By a vote of four to one, Councilman Sam Davis voting in the negative, the city council last night adopted an ordinance changing the hour of the open session from 7:30 at night to 10 o'clock in the morning. The council will meet at that time every Thursday and on the first and last Tuesdays of each month.

The ordinance, as adopted, carried an amendment making it effective December 13. The councilmen were desirous of holding the meetings at the new hour immediately, but were unable to do so on account of the hearings of protests and other matters which had been set for the evening session.

City Business Grows
This change is made necessary by the constantly increasing amount of business which is brought before the council at each session, and is in line with what other cities are doing. Only yesterday the members of the council were informed that Monrovia had adopted the plan of the morning meeting, and that it was working out very satisfactorily.

This ordinance has been "hanging fire" for some time, but it was not until last night that the members of the council could agree in making the change. The press of business has become so great that they feel the best interests of the city of Glendale can better be served by holding the session in the morning.

They point out that there is such a rush to get through matters brought before them now in order to adjourn at a reasonable hour, some time a proposition of merit may possibly be overlooked, and some citizen be done an injustice.

Councilman Davis, after the meeting, stated that his reason for voting in the negative was that he considered it would take a great many people away from their work to present matters to the council. Aside from this feature, however, he seemed to acquiesce in the matter.

The daylight meeting time has long been advocated by Councilman W. A. Horn and Asa Hall and the action taken last night resulted from the motion made by the latter official.

Portland Police Raid Holiday Liquor Stock

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 23.—"Holiday cheer"—108 cases of it—valued at $12,000, reposed in the police property room today following a sudden raid last night on the east side residence of Walter E. Brown, alias Thompson. Brown, police say, is a professional liquor dealer and has among his customers many prominent Portland citizens. Shortly after the arrest four influential men, according to police, telephoned headquarters urging that the case against Brown be dropped. The liquor was found behind a false partition in Brown's garage.

Rasputin's Slayer May Be Admitted Into United States

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Prince Felix Youssouff, once reputed to be the richest man in Russia, will be subjected to the same examination accorded all immigrants when he arrives in New York aboard the liner Berengaria, it was declared officially at the labor department today.

Despite protests against the admission of Youssouff, of the monk, Rasputin, immigration officials said nothing would stand in the way of the prince's entrance if he passed the ordinary port examinations.

DEATH GRILL IS HELPED BY BRIDE

Bandit Expected to 'Break' and Admit Slaying of Special Officer

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—Confronted by his pretty bride of a week, Edward Carleton, 22, deserter from the United States navy, was expected to "break" today under grilling by the police and admit he slew Special Officer Robert McGee and seriously wounded Detective Lieutenant L. N. Luke in a robbery in Irolo street last Wednesday night.

Carleton was arrested as he was boarding a steamer for San Francisco within twenty-four hours after the gun battle.

Carleton's arrest was the direct result of the story told by his young wife, who was arrested near the scene of the robbery, that she had been with her husband at the time of the attempted robbery, and that he had done all the shooting. She is held by the police. Another woman, Miss Irene Schwartz, said to be known as Renee Garrison, is also held by the officers in connection with the crime.

Mingle With Officers
In her story to the police, the Schwartz girl told of how she and Carleton went to the receiving hospital immediately after the gun battle, mingled with officers there and inquired how seriously the two officers had been wounded. When told that McGee was dead Carleton is said to have told Miss Schwartz, "let's go!"

She also denied having any part in the robbery, explaining that she was staying with Carleton and his wife and that Carleton returned to their apartment after the shooting and told her that he and his wife had been in a shooting affair.

OUT ON LARGE BOND

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—Thomas J. Ryan, president of the American Oil company of Fort Worth, Texas, was today under $10,000 bond to insure his appearance in San Francisco to face a federal indictment.

PREDICT INDICTMENTS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—More indictments against Herman L. Roth, Hollywood attorney, accused of attempting to blackmail $20,000 from Barbara La Marr, film actress, were forecast today by investigators.

ALLIES HEAR GERMANY'S ECONOMIC TROUBLES

Experts Tell Commission Difficulties in Which Government Labors

BULLETIN
PARIS, Nov. 23.—Premier Poincare this afternoon was given a vote of confidence by the Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 505 to 70.

BULLETIN
PARIS, Nov. 23.—"If France be menaced tomorrow, she will act alone without asking authorization from her allies," Premier Poincare declared in the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon.

By FRANK E. MASON
For International News Service
PARIS, Nov. 23.—Ten German economic experts were given a two-hour hearing by the inter-allied reparations commission today. They outlined Germany's industrial and financial situation, stressing the difficulties under which the Berlin government is laboring.

This was the first opportunity given to the Germans to explain their position and their capacity for indemnity payments.

The commission said a communique would be issued tonight.

Those in Party
The German delegates were Herren Fisher, Myer, Little, Michaels, Brandt, Wolf, Simon, Reihardt, Schaefer and Dorn. Brandt is an official of the German ministry of finance; Wolf is an attaché of the ministry of communications; Simon is an official of the foreign office and Reichardt and Schaefer are attached to the ministry of public economy.

It was understood that the Germans urged the necessity of a moratorium and an international loan to enable the Berlin government to get upon its feet and stabilize its money.

Offers Information
Herr Wolf was the only one of the Germans to address the commission. He promised to send additional documents from the German war inquiry commission to the reparations commission if desired. He said that the Germans wished to give complete and detailed information upon all issues involved.

The reparations commission will meet again Tuesday to examine the German documents. If necessary, they will again call in the German delegates for a supplementary explanation.

Reparations Report Diplomatic Bombshell

LONDON, Nov. 23.—American publication of the reparations report of the United States Ambassador Myron T. Herrick caused a sensation in the press as well as much gratification in official circles today.

Officials claim that it has forcibly brought the English point of view on reparations before the attention of the whole world.

The Daily News intimated that the state department of Washington "may have allowed the report to trickle out in order to expose the French position."

It is reported here that the French government forbade the publication of the Herrick report in Paris newspapers.

Stresemann Quits!

BERLIN, Nov. 23.—Chancellor Stresemann resigned as head of the German government this afternoon and his cabinet fell with him. The resignation followed the failure of the Reichstag to give him a vote of confidence.

REICHSTAG REFUSES VOTE FOR STRESEMANN

BERLIN, Nov. 23.—The German Reichstag this afternoon rejected a resolution expressing confidence in the government of Chancellor Gustav Stresemann. The vote was: For the motion, 155 votes; against the motion, 230 votes. Abstainers, seven. The vote was taken after a stormy session during which the chancellor told the Reichstag he wanted the fate of his government decided immediately.

BRIDE'S CONFESSION CANNOT BE USED

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—A gaping loophole in the case against Edward H. Carleton, navy deserter, charged with the murder of Robert McGee, special police officer, loomed today when the district attorney's office notified the police that the confession of Jeanne Carleton, the accused man's bride, accusing him as the slayer, could not be used in court action against him. Carleton, according to the notice from the attorney's office, must be identified as the murderer independently of his wife's confession.

Register Before Dec. 8th, to Vote on Sewer Bonds

Voters of Glendale are taking advantage of the facilities placed at their disposal by the appointment of two deputy registrars who maintain office hours from 7:30 a. m. until 9 p. m. at the office of The Glendale Evening News.

In order to have a voice in deciding the proposed issue of sewer bonds it is necessary that every voter register between now and December 8, the date set for the closing of the registers, and from the rate at which the voters are placing their names on the rolls it is predicted that a record vote will be cast on January 8, 1924.

C. J. Weidman handles the registration from 7:30 a. m. until 5 p. m., and Ralph A. Lynd is on duty from that hour until 9 p. m.

Kiwanians Entertain Workers at Luncheon; Hewitt in Plea for Support

The weekly program of the Kiwanis luncheon was turned over to the workers of the Glendale Welfare Chest, who were the guests of the club. W. E. Hewitt, president of the Welfare Chest, and A. M. Tower, chairman of the campaign committee, made a strong appeal to Kiwanians and their friends to support the drive to the limit of their ability.

Attention was called to the fact that, although the time for the close of the drive is at hand, only a small part of the $40,000 that was set as the goal has been raised. Heads of committees and workers in the campaign were greatly encouraged when totals were reported at noon today which showed $20,000 subscribed to date.

Mr. Hewitt introduced Mrs. Dan Campbell, Mrs. E. F. Yard and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, who spoke urging support of the Chest campaign.

Lyman P. Clark presided at the luncheon, which was held at the Tuesday Afternoon club.

OLD RIVALS READY FOR BATTLE ON GRIDIRON

Football Season Now Near Close; Friendly Feuds to Be Settled

The Glendale Evening News' special "direct from the field" sports wire will carry full details of the "big game" between the California Golden Bears and the Stanford Cardinals tomorrow. Play starts promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Other coast and big games on the eastern gridirons will be thoroughly covered and announced to the football fans who gather in front of The Evening News office for the hot-off-the-wire returns.

Glendale Enters Last Lap Towards $10,000,000 Goal

Glendale this morning entered on the last lap in the race toward the $10,000,000 goal for building permits during the present year. To E. Sherman Kennedy, who made application to erect a two room dwelling with garage at 1679 South Pacific avenue, goes the credit for pushing the total over the $9,000,000 mark.

In addition, it is practically assured that Glendale will enter the "Million Dollar Class" again this month, for the first time since March, which will give this city a Class A rating.

The total for the year thus far is nearly three times the amount issued during the entire year of 1920, twice the total of 1921, and one-third over the total of 1922, as the following table shows:

Total for year 1920	$3,137,269
Total for year 1921	5,939,201
Total for year 1922	6,305,371
Total for year 1923 to date	9,000,524

A practical barometer of the city's growth and the magnitude of the building industry is at hand by studying the record of the permits issued the current year, with the monthly totals. It will be noticed that during the summer the activity slackened somewhat, but it has lately recovered until at the present time it exceeds anything this city has ever experienced, according to several prominent contractors.

The monthly record for the current year is as follows:

January	1,200,000
February	1,100,000
March	1,300,000
April	1,400,000
May	1,500,000
June	1,600,000
July	1,700,000
August	1,800,000
September	1,900,000
October	2,000,000
November	2,100,000

BIG INCREASE IN BUSINESS FOR WHOLE WEST NOW ASSURED

Trust Company Heads in Conference Tell About Gains in Trade

By COPELAND C. BURG
For International News Service
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Enormous increases in trade with the Orient, Alaska and the western slope are bringing to a close one of the best business years in the far west and hold promise of unusual activity in 1924, in the opinion of trust company officers from Washington, Oregon, California, Colorado, Utah, New Mexico, Arizona, Wyoming, Idaho and Montana, gathered in conference here today. The meeting, said to be the first of its kind in trust company history, is held under the auspices of the American Bankers' association.

New industries, more people, higher wages and good crops are important factors on which the trust officials base their predictions for enormous gains in trade and business next year.

"With more than 250,000 square miles of territory to draw from and the outlet of the only water grade entrance on the Pacific, Portland is now coming into its own," Albert L. Grutke of Portland told International News Service. "Portland, the Boston of the Pacific, is most conservative, but this year's immense apple, wheat and salmon crops have pushed it forward in huge strides and 1924 will see a wonderful business year for us."

Southland Business
Los Angeles is experiencing a spectacular business, according to a southern city banker, who said: "Business is wonderful. Mortgage loans are easing up a bit to curb wild speculation, but there is no serious setback in sight for Los Angeles. In fact, there is such an influx of people and money to Los Angeles that the city's crowded streets form a genuine problem."

"Increased Oriental and Alaskan trade, new industries and buildings and new residents have given Seattle a big year," declared W. H. Shoemaker, Seattle Trust company official. "In Seattle there is work for everyone and wages are good. The outlook is splendid."

Helps Conditions
An improved wool market has aided business conditions in Utah, Idaho and Montana, William V. Rockefeller of Salt Lake City said. Low cattle prices have hurt these states, according to Mr. Rockefeller, but a change in the market is expected after the first of the year.

Establishment of steel mills in Utah has meant much to his state, Rockefeller asserted.

Social Events

Address P.-T. A.
Miss Anna Irene Jenkins of the Los Angeles city schools, a most capable speaker, addressed the Glendale Avenue Parent-Teachers' association yesterday at their regular meeting. The subject, "Willing to Risk It," covered school politics of today, with side lights on the influence of the P.-T.
A. and its effects as seen in many instances, particularly the adoption of Amendment No. 16, passed at the last election, and also touched upon the school budget.

The meeting was held in the new auditorium of the school with the president, Mrs. O. A. Spradling in the chair. Following a short business meeting, the program was opened with a picturesque flag salute, in which a pupil of the seventh grade officiated as color bearer, with one guard dressed in the garb of a pilgrim father and the other in the costume of an American Indian.

A pleasing program presented by pupils of the P.-T. A. class, under the direction of the class teacher, Miss Jennie Lacy, opened with a song, "Land of the Pilgrims," by the class, with pageant by pupils in Pilgrim costumes. Pupils appearing in costume were William Anker, Harry Jenkins, Margaret Stull, Earl Dibill, Mildred McCoy, Clarence Mace, Curtis McFadden.

The "Courtship of Miles Standish" was sung by a trio, in character costume, with Earl Dibill as Captain Miles Standish, Helen Rosenberg as Priscilla, and Curtis McFadden, John Alden, with the familiar story acted in pantomime.

Historical sketch, "The Rescue of Captain John Smith," was enacted in costume. Characters were: Chief Powhatan, Obed Lucas; Capt. John Smith, Bernard Cressey; Pocahontas, Betty Grant; Indian Girl, Idamae Campbell; Braves, Frank Howe, Teddy Salzer, Billy Day, Russell Andrews.

The program closed with "The Raccoon Song" by the boys' quartette, composed of Dustin Smith, Frank Howe, Bernard Cressey, Teddy Salzer.

During the social hour, refreshments were served in the domestic science room.

Theatre—Supper
Miss Hazel Linkogel of 214
East Chestnut street was a charming hostess when she entertained a number of close friends Tuesday night with a theatre party, followed by a supper at her home.

The room was decorated with white chrysanthemums and a color scheme of turquoise blue and white was carried out very effectively in the appointments of the supper table. A unique centerpiece was arranged with streamers which, upon being manipulated by the guests, at a given signal, disclosed a beautiful birthday cake with blue and white decorations and twenty candles, ready for lighting.

Those participating in the pleasure of the evening were Misses Orrel Hester, Gertrude Heideman, Genevieve Zimmerman, Messrs Max Smith, Ray Hunting, Claude Whitfield, Henry
Grace, and the hostess.

Rodaire Club
Mrs. James McGowan of South Pacific avenue was hostess last Wednesday night at an enjoyable informal affair when she entertained the members of the Rodaire club.

The rooms of the McGowan home were attractively decorated with fall flowers and foliage.

The evening was devoted to sewing and a social hour, when the hostess served a dainty course of refreshments.

Those present included the Misses Eva Brehme, Zilda Cross, Henrietta Meek and Mesdames Ray Engle, Herman Penner, Robert Godar, Paul McGowan, F. M.
Duffey and the hostess, Mrs.
James McGowan.

The next weekly meeting will be held at the home of Miss Henrietta Meek, 321 East Maple avenue.

Holiday Luncheon
Mrs. Joseph E. Foy of 122 1/2
West Chestnut street was hostess at a pretty luncheon Wednesday of this week. A color scheme of dark red, suggestive of the approaching holiday season, was carried out very prettily with the season's flowers in the appointments of the luncheon.

Concert music over the radio was a pleasant diversion during the afternoon while the guests were busily engaged with fancy needlework.

Those present were Mesdames
C. E. Snively, Marie Petty, Har-bert Grey, Raymond Kimble, H.
Ellers, Albert Pickles, Gus Lavi-son, Robert McMullen, and the hostess.

P. E. O. Hostess
Chaper, A. H. P. E. O., were entertained Wednesday at an all-day meeting and luncheon at the home of Mrs. John A. Logan, 122
East Park avenue. Mrs. C. T. Van Etten of Pasadena and Mrs. J. C.
Pollock of Ocean Park and Mrs.
A. Stephenson were the assisting hostesses.

Mrs. Leslie Eames gave a very interesting account of her trip east this summer. The bazaar held recently at the home of Mrs.
W. W. Worley, for the educational fund, was the report. Mrs.
W. W. Nelson was the guest of the chapter at luncheon.

Initiate Twelve
The members of the Eastern Star, of which Miss Mildred Lyon is worthy matron, will meet tonight at the Masonic temple, it is announced.

During the business session over twelve candidates for membership will be initiated. At the close of the meeting a social hour will be enjoyed and refreshments served. A large attendance is urged.

Meet on Monday
The Wilson Avenue Parent-
Teacher association, of which Mrs.
H. A. Thimm is president, will hold the regular meeting Monday, November 26, at the school. A meeting of the executive board will be called at 1:45 o'clock, a meeting of room mothers at 2 o'clock, and the regular meeting will convene at 2:30 o'clock.

The program will be in charge of Mrs. E. B. Wyman, program
chairman. Miss Helen Stuar

Delphians Gather
To one of the most interesting programs of the year's study, was added a delightful luncheon and social hour by the Delphians yesterday at the regular meeting of the Alpha Delta chapter.

The subject of the morning's program at the home of Mrs. Barton Manbert, 621 South Columbus street, was "The Drama as a Religious and Moral Force, the Morality and Mystery Plays."

Mrs. Paul Mason, leader of the Lotus group, outlined the lesson in order to aid in a better understanding of the plays and also preliminary to the presentation of the mystery play, "The Three Maries," given by members in costume, gave a word picture of an ancient street in medieval times. Mrs. C. R. Colburn also spoke, her topic being "The World's Best Seller."

The play presented was "The Three Maries." Mrs. J. D. Zinke, as the herald, read the prologue.
The cast was as follows: The gardener (Jesus) Mrs. H. W. Yarlick; mother of James, Mrs. Barton Manbert; Mary Salzer, Mrs. Anna
Long; Mary Magdalene, Mrs.
Dwight Stephenson; first angel,
Mrs. M. D. Russell; second angel,
Mrs. R. K. Snow.

Two groups of songs from the cantata, "The Three Maries" were given by Mrs. Roger Fitz and Miss Isabel Isgrig and Glenn Dol-berg. The first group was given by Mrs. Fitz and Miss Isgrig, the second by Mrs. Fitz, Miss Isgrig and Mr. Dolberg, added very much to the beauty of the presentation.

Mrs. Danford, city librarian, was present and addressed the chapter. Mrs. M. W. Lebecher, of Los Angeles, was the speaker of the morning, her subject being "Constructive Criticism."

nity dinner given at the Tuesday Afternoon Clubhouse by the Maid's and Young Matrons' section, of which Mrs. Claude G. Putnam is curator.

Dinner was served at 7 o'clock and later an enjoyable program was given. Mrs. George R. Postle was in charge of the program, and Mrs. F. H. Waller was chairman of decorations.

The dinner committee included
Mesdames W. F. MacPherson, E.
L. Osborn and J. L. Osgood.
Mrs. Leonard W. Bradley, dramatic reader, delighted the company with her interpretation of "The Birth of the Christ Child" from "Ben Hur" and a group of selected readings.

Philip J. Meany of San Gabriel, talented vocalist, gave "I Know a Lovely Garden" (d'Hardelot),
"I Sing Songs of Araby" (Clay),
"Elegy" (Massenet), "Slumber Boat" (Gaynor), and "Boat Song" (Ware).

Mrs. Helen Graham Cole sang "Less Than the Dust" (Finden), and "Banjo Song" (Homer).
Lafayette Taylor and D. Miller, saxophone artists of Los Angeles, also entertained. They were accompanied by Miss Life, pianist.

Miss Life also played for the singing of "America."

The section members are now anticipating their annual Christmas party, December 13, with Mrs. C. G. Putnam of 424 North Glendale avenue. It will be a luncheon in the attractive Aztec

Finlay & Preston's Realty Sales Average $100,000 Monthly Since Firm Was Launched

A picture of the reorganized sales force of Finlay & Preston, realtors, 131 South Brand boulevard. Reading from left to right: A. H. Warner, F. J. Griffin, Harley G. Preston, Miss Jean Barlow, H. L. Finlay, S. A. Koontz and W. C. Waring.

Volume of Business Reflects Aggressive Policy of Live Local House

An average of nearly $100,000 a month in sales of Glendale property is the record of Finlay & Preston, realtors, 131 South Brand boulevard, in the six months they have been in business together.

"With over $500,000 as our total sales record," says Harley G. Preston, "and with nearly $100,000 sold in the past week alone, H. L. Finlay and myself are proud of what we have been able to accomplish in our first half-year of business association, and feel confident that the future holds for us and our customers and clients a still larger measure of success."

In order to meet the increased demands of the organization, the entire Finlay & Preston sales force has recently been reorganized and now comprises the following personnel:

Makes Fine Record
S. A. Koontz, originally in business in Pittsburgh and for the past nine years a resident of California, a man of considerable experience in the real estate business, who is making a fine record on sales. He is a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge.

W. C. Waring, originally from Montreal, N. J., and twenty-two years with the New York Cotton exchange. He has been in California two and a half years and with another party established the original Army and Navy store at Brand and Harvard. He is a member of the Exchange club and Elks lodge, and invites his friends to see him with reference to real estate sales and investments.

F. J. Griffin has been in California for the past eight months and comes from New York City, where for four years he was with the Monroe Calculating Machine company, and was also private secretary to the general counsel of the Union Pacific railroad.

Here from Kansas is A. H. Warner who has lived in California for the past fourteen months and came from Belleville, Kan. He has been engaged in the printing business for the past nine years, being for the last year connected with The Glendale Evening News as a linotype operator. Mr. Warner has sold nearly $165,000 worth of real estate in the past ninety days, nearly $65,000 of this being consummated during the past week. He has charge of the exchange department of the firm and will specialize in exchanges, small and great. He invites his many friends and clients to see him with reference to property deals.

Miss Jean Barlow, secretary of the firm, has lived in Glendale three years, coming from Des Moines, Iowa, where she held the position of executive secretary to Horace G. Larimer of the United States bureau of investigation. For some time she had charge of the classified advertising department of The Glendale Evening News.

Native of Ohio, H. L. Finlay is a native of Ohio and has resided in California for fifteen years, in Glendale six years. He was connected with the Union Oil Company of California for eight years, in the credit department, and has been engaged in the real estate business in Glendale during the past year. Mr. Finlay is superintendent of the First Presbyterian church Sunday school and is an ex-Y. M. C. A. secretary, and is active in the Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations.

Harley G. Preston was formerly pastor of the Pacific Avenue Community Methodist church of this city, entering the real estate profession over a year ago for financial reasons. He is connected with the First Methodist church of Glendale and is chaplain of the local American Legion post and a member of the Knights of Pythias. He has lived in California four years, in Glendale two years, and hailed from New York. He is a native of Iowa.

"We are well pleased with the confidence shown our firm," said H. L. Finlay today, "and pledge our best efforts to our customers."

BUILDING PERMIT TOTALS $9,000,524

Glendale Now on Its Final Lap Towards Its Goal of $10,000,000

rent year is as follows:

Month	Permits	Value
January	1,924,326	$1,924,326

November to date	895,677	$895,677
Total	9,000,524	$9,000,524

"With five weeks before us," said Municipal Building Superintendent H. C. Vandewater this morning, "and several big projects in view, there is little doubt but what we will exceed our $10,000,000 goal. The staff at my office, although it has been increased by the addition of several inspectors, is entirely inadequate to handle the rush of business which has greeted us during November and bids fair to continue throughout the winter months."

With the granting of Mr. Kennedy's permit, the total for the year stood at $9,000,524, of which November is credited with $895,677, already nearly $100,000 in excess of the permits issued during October of this year.

SCOTS PLAN TO FETE MUSICIANS

Victorious Bandsmen to Be Honored at Pyramid's Meeting Tonight

A monster celebration meeting of Glendale Pyramid No. 29 Ancient Egyptian Order of Scots, in honor of the "best Scot band in the world" for its success in the competitive contest at San Diego last week, will be held in Odd Fellows Hall this evening, when the silver cup won by the band will be presented to its new owners.

The local pyramid won the cup, which has been held for two years by the Fresno Scots, in competition with five other pyramids. "It took the entire police force of San Diego to keep the Glendale Scots present from tearing up the stadium when our boys won under the gallant leadership of Scot O'Leary," Harry M. Bennett, T. O. of the Glendale pyramid, modestly admitted. G. O. Russell is manager of the band and William Osterman is the leader.

In addition to the presentation of the cup to the band, the program tonight will include a number of selections by the champion Scot musicians. A turkey raffle is also planned for the meeting, and it is expected that an unusually large number of members will be on hand to get their Thanksgiving turkeys.

Two-piece dresses with jacket and pleated skirt are popular for school wear. Velvet top with avo crepe skirt styles are leading examples.

Immigrants' Appeals Sent to Labor Dept.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—President Coolidge today referred to the department of labor the appeal sent to him in behalf of a large number of immigrants detained at Ellis Island in excess of the quotas admissible from the countries from which they came.

Secretary Davis said that every case will be individually reviewed and it will probably be some days before all the cases will finally be disposed of.

It is not always wise to do what we like to do, but it is always safe to do the wise thing.

FIND JEWELS IN MYSTERY ROBBERY

'Master Mind' Being Held in Inquiry on Two Million Theft

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Recovery of $25,000 in gems and $6000 in war savings stamps from what police termed "one of the eight secret homes of Dr. Spencer Brown," and the announcement following a new arrest, that the evidence would be ready for the grand jury today, marked developments in the investigation of the Werner brothers warehouse robbery.

A new list issued by the Pinkerton agency of losses in the bold coup of oxy-acetylene bandits a month ago brought estimates of the total loot to $2,000,000 with nearly a million in jewels missing in addition to the million and a quarter in negotiable securities, warehouse officials admitted were taken.

Mysterious Tip
Dr. Brown, arrested on a mysterious telephone tip, has admitted to police that he was a "master mind," but denied all connection with the gigantic robbery.

Frank Miller, latest arrest in the investigation, was being closely questioned today before the case is presented to the grand jury.

EXPLAIN HOLIDAY MAILING SYSTEM

Girls' Committee See Methods Used to Insure Prompt Delivery

Delegates to inspect the various departments of the local post-office for the purpose of learning correct methods of wrapping and addressing mail, in order to insure prompt delivery during the Christmas season, a committee of six girls from the Wilson Avenue Intermediate School this morning was the guest of Assistant Postmaster G. M. Hallett at the post-office.

After making notes of the various operations through which a letter or package goes in passing through the postoffice, with particular attention paid to the methods of wrapping and tying parcels and parcels, the committee returned to the school to report the result of the investigation to other school children.

Girls Will Spread News
"This will be of great help to us as well as to our patrons during the heavy Christmas business," Mr. Hallett said, "as these girls will tell their class mates about what the inspectors and each turn will spread the news among other members of their families. If all the schools of Glendale should adopt this plan it would mean a great saving of time and trouble in handling the holiday mail."

Mr. Hallett pointed out that efforts are being made by the postoffice department to educate its patrons to not use small envelopes for letters, but rather the regulation sizes commonly used in business and social correspondence. The use of "freak" size envelopes is strongly discouraged, he said.

AVIATION SCHOOL
Bolivia will have a military aviation school under the direction of a French expert.

Fraudulent bankruptcy costs wholesalers and manufacturers of this country about $400,000,000 a year in losses.

Close of Education Week Leaves Solution of Many Problems Still In Haze

By F. A. GRAHAM
Of The Evening News Staff.

Tomorrow will mark the end of "National Education Week." In the evening at 8 o'clock friends and relatives will gather in the auditorium of the new Tujunga postoffice to witness the commencement exercises of the class of '23, University of California Extension Division. Special addresses by prominent educators will be delivered by parcel post. Diplomas will be presented by special delivery, and valuable advice to the graduates will be protected by insured mail. Last, but not least, to those of the class who have earned the right to wear them will be presented the varsity registered letter. It will be a great day for all correspondence school students.

In fact, it will be a great day for everybody, for on the next day another "week" will start. Last week was a special opportunity for father and son to get better acquainted. They see each other so seldom. This week is a special opportunity for father, mother and the children to take their combined uncultivated intellects out of hock, and re-line them with some nice new knowledge.

Defines Education
To get educated, is to improve your ignorance, with things you have heard of but never fully comprehended.

Example number one: Everybody, except Iowans, has heard of groundhogs, yet it is astonishing, even appalling, how few can tell what they are. This is a lamentable state of affairs in a country where everyone is supposed to be a farmer. Here, with given to relieve the congestion—ground hogs are pork sausage. Let that be a lesson to everyone.

Example number two: Mother, Friday night—"What did mama's little baby boy learn at school this week?"

Small son: "I learned two kids not to call me mama's baby." This might be termed physical culture.

Study Flat Tires
During this week, when education is supposed to be on tap, the Skippers of Flivvers society of Montrose, has been in session every day trying to learn how to enjoy a flat tire. The class is made up of numskulls and can't do a thing with the lesson. This comes under the head of what is often termed auto-suggestion.

Scientists have educated us to believe that the people who wear the fewest clothes and mop up plenty of fresh air, will live to be the oldest. From observation, we have learned who these people are, but on delving further into the wells of wisdom, we learn that women don't want to get old. In fact, they positively refuse. Something strange about that, or else part of our education is on the friz.

Social workers claim that working girls can live on $9 per week. Young men are taught that, and they fall for it. That part is all right, but it's only half the lesson. Why don't the social workers inform the victims, why the girls don't continue on that sum after they are married?

What Is Social Worker?
And what is a social worker, anyway? (Whoever found anything sociable about work? As long as education is so plentiful this week, will some one kindly teach us the answer to why is a war tax on a free ticket to the movies and on telephone tolls? When we are going to have a week off to celebrate that there is no special week to observe? You tell 'em Samantha, our education has been sadly neglected.

It begins to look as though the only thing free and equal in this country, is ignorance. Now, if we were allowed to make personal comments, we would say that, personally, we always manage to have plenty of everything that is free, this case no exception; but we can't tell you that because the editor says that the hired help mustn't talk about themselves in these columns.

SAFETY FIRST

Donald Gill, Pacific Avenue
To all the schools in California a little booklet comes each month to every room, and in it are little themes and verses about safety first. It reminds me of a verse I read in it:

Little Jack Horner
Sat on the corner, eating his apple pie;
Along came an auto, and broke the safety first motto.

And caused poor Jackie to die.
When you cross the street look out for machines and street cars. There is a safety first motto that says, "Always be careful. Don't ever forget," and if everyone followed this rule there wouldn't be quite so many accidents.

Also, when you are driving an automobile be sure that you know the driving signals. When you ride a wheel you should be very careful.

Safety first doesn't mean just to be careful on streets, but it also means to be careful with fires, because they are just as dangerous. So I warn the boys and girls of Glendale to be careful and remember the safety first motto.

THRIFT

Wilma Leiser, Broadway
MAMMY'S LESSON ON THRIFT
I
'You must save your money, hon.' Said black mammy to her son. Who was going to buy some candy In the little shop so handy.

II
'Go put that money in yo' bank. And when you're grown to high—est rank You'll think of mammy dear. And save your money, never fear.

III
'When you want to spend your pennies For ice cream cakes and candies, Remember, mammy's lesson, honey. And save, save, save your money.'

POLLY, MY PET

Muriel McIntyre, Broadway

One morning, very early, I heard somebody calling me. It sounded as if it came from the dining room. I went to see who it was. To my surprise there sat a parrot. On it was a card saying, "Birthday greetings to Muriel." I ran and thanked mother for it. I named her Polly. She said to me, "Where do you live?"

I said, "I live right here." One day I took Polly for a walk. I passed a fruit and vegetable stand and she flew from my shoulder, took a tomato and let it fall in a lady's shopping bag.

Another day I took Polly for a walk. We passed a house in which the window was open. She flew in and the people gave her a cracker.

Every day I take her past the house the cracker is there. This is because Polly lived there for a week.

One Saturday when we were going to the beach we took Polly with us. She was so excited she talked to everybody. She sat on a little boy's hat and frightened him. She watched the seagulls catch fish.

When I went to feed her one morning I couldn't find her. I found her at last in my coat pocket, sound asleep. I had been telling papa what I was going to give mother for Christmas. So Polly went into the kitchen and said to mamma, "What will you give me if I tell you something?" Mother said, "I will give you some cake." So Polly said, "Muriel is giving you candied sticks for Christmas." So I had to give mother something else.

THE FISH HAWK

Dennis Baldwin, Acacia Avenue

The fish hawk is a very interesting bird. It builds its nest on the very top of a dead tree out in the open, so that it can fly into its nest without hitting the baby birds. It builds near a pond or some river or lake. It has a hard time to get food for the young ones. It has to be on the lookout for the bald eagle. If the bald eagle sees the mother fish hawk fishing it will fly away above the clouds and watch her. When the fish hawk catches a fish the bald eagle will swoop down and attack the fish hawk. The fish hawk drops her fish and starts fighting. The bald eagle snatches the fish and flies away.

One day the fish hawk was looking for food. She caught an eel. She was flying swiftly home. But what do you think was after her? No one but the bald eagle. The fish hawk tried to get away, but the bald eagle caught her and took the eel away from her.

When the babies are old enough to fly they fly away. The mother bird comes back to the same nest every year and keeps building the nest higher, while down at the bottom it is rotting away.

SAFETY

Bromley Maple, Columbus Avenue

One of the ways we can observe safety rules is to be careful how we use matches. Matches are one of the most dangerous things there are. You should never play with matches, because they often cause fires which cost a great deal both in loss of property and loss of life. You should be very careful to put your camp fire out before you leave your camp, because if you don't the sparks might blow to some dry brush and cause a fire to start. Little sparks have caused fires to burn hundreds of miles.

Another way we can observe safety rules is to be careful in crossing the street. When you are crossing the street wait until the traffic cop signals for you to cross, then you can cross in safety. Some people do not like that way and are sometimes seriously injured. When they wake up they are in the hospital.

Delay Installation of Lights on W. Bdwy.

A petition, carrying 51.61 per cent of the signatures of the property owners affected, was presented to the City Council last night, asking for the installation of ornamental two-light standards on West Broadway between Central Avenue and San Fernando road.

As the widening of this road is being considered, it was not thought advisable to place these standards at the present time and then have to move them in a short space of time. There will be further investigation made of this project.

Blast Follows Fire in British Steamer.

MARSEILLES, France, Nov. 23.—An explosion resulted from a fire on board the 6000-ton British steamship Otterburg today. Forty persons were reported missing, but later all but two were picked up by rescuers. Those missing were the captain and a sailor. The Otterburg was bound for Barcelona, Spain.

BIG FORTUNE IN BOOTLEG TRAFFIC

More Than $50,000,000 Is Split by Operators; U. S.
Agents Involved

By W. H. ATKINS
For International News Service

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The 126 persons implicated in the indictments returned by the federal grand jury at Savannah, Ga., have distributed among themselves more than $50,000,000 in illicit liquor profits, officials of the department of justice said today.

The fortunes quickly made off some smuggled liquors are shown partly by ledgers of the bootleg operators and by bank deposit books and other data which have fallen into possession of special agents of the department of justice.

The distribution of this great stock of wet goods was made from Savannah by freight and express through main railroad routes to northern points.

Promises Sensation
Chief Burns, of the bureau of investigation, today promised further startling disclosures, as the round-up of indicted defendants proceeded in a score of cities through the east and middle west.

Federal grand jury proceedings are under way in other cities and officials of the department of justice and the internal revenue bureau are co-operating in efforts to get indictments that will strike at the source of liquor supplies.

Involved in the Savannah indictments are numerous federal dry agents who are alleged to have protected the liquor smuggling traffic trade through the Savannah gateway.

FAVOR WIDENING OF CENTRAL AVE.

Property Owners Decide on Program: Improvement
by Condemnation

Central Avenue Improvement association, stated that it was a gathering of friends with a mutual interest. He explained the three-fold plan, making it very clear that all were already in accord on paving and lighting, and that it was only in the matter of widening of opinion.

The first speaker, W. S. Bear, who is building an eighty-room apartment hotel on Central avenue above California avenue, expressed himself as fully in favor of widening Central avenue to a 100-foot boulevard, with a ten-foot setback line on each side and a sixteen-foot sidewalk, stating, "I am setting back my new building fifteen feet from the present line, for the reason that I can see this widening is bound to come sooner or later."

W. F. Tower, who followed, called attention to the fact that at the last meeting of the city council, complaints were made by West Broadway merchants against parking cars on the north side of this street, saying it was an injury to trade—"and yet Broadway is eight feet wider than Central avenue," he concluded.

Mr. Tower, who has just completed a store and apartment building on Central avenue just south of Hawthorne street, has borne out his conviction in the matter by establishing a ten-foot setback line.

L. H. Wilson, the next speaker, cited examples of wide streets increasing values of property out of all proportion to the cost of widening, and said in part: "I would rather have a lot big enough for a peanut stand on a wide street, than a hotel site on a narrow street."

Accident Rate
Mrs. LeRoy Bosserman called attention to the present high accident rate on Central avenue and stated that with the avenue properly widened and paved, this rate would be greatly lowered.

O. M. Newby spoke of the geographical situation of Central avenue with respect to Hollywood, Pasadena and the Glendale foothills, stating that it will soon carry three or four times its present traffic. J. H. Franklin made a strong appeal for preservation of the natural beauty of Central avenue and its maintenance as a residential district. He was refuted by John S. Knox, who reiterated Mr. Wheelon's statement that condemnation proceedings contemplated no hasty action but must be started two years ahead of the time it was to be completed.

J. I. Wernette, A. Lowinsky, H. P. Goertz, F. H. Olmstead, W. L. Truitt, John A. Cole and Mrs. John S. Knox were among the others who spoke at the meeting in harmony and it is now the plan, according to Mr. Guthrie, to sign up every property owner on Central avenue for widening to 100 feet, so as to thoroughly convince the city council that this is the practically unanimous wish.

Many who were at last night's meeting expressed the regret that the city council was not there to hear the preponderant sentiment in favor of widening.

MORTICIANS WILL KEEP OPEN HOUSE

Kiefer & Eyerick Invite All Glendadians to Inspect
Funeral Parlors

Open house will be held at the funeral parlors of Kiefer & Eyerick, 305 East Broadway, from 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Saturday, November 24, until 10 o'clock at night, it is announced, when residents of Glendale and vicinity will have an opportunity to inspect this completely remodeled undertaking establishment. Those who avail themselves of this opportunity will find that Emil O. Kiefer and John M. Eyerick have spared nothing to make their establishment on a par with the finest to be found anywhere. The new chapel, beautifully appointed in wicker chairs, conveys just the proper atmosphere. The reception room, likewise appointed in wicker, is bright and cheerful.

Private Entrance
A special feature is the family room, with a private entrance. This room is richly appointed in overcasted furniture. The music room contains a combination pipe organ and piano, the only instrument of its kind in the San Fernando valley. The show room contains a full line of caskets, dresses and suits. The office has been remodeled as well and offers every convenience for efficient service.

Three motor vehicles are maintained as a part of the Kiefer & Eyerick undertaking equipment—an ambulance, a hearse and a large and comfortable sedan. Other appointments throughout the establishment are in keeping with this tone of excellence. In fact, to inspect these beautiful funeral parlors, feel Messrs. Emil O. Kiefer and John M. Eyerick, is to become satisfied that this firm is offering an undertaking service unequalled in Southern California.

'SLOT' MACHINES TO PAY LICENSE

Ordinance Designed to Halt Spread of Gambling Passes Council

The City Council last night adopted the new ordinance regulating the control of vending, popularly known as "slot," machines in this city. It is aimed at the prevention of the cultivation of the gambling spirit in the young people of Glendale.

The ordinance gives the chief of police very definite powers, and places the licensees under his control. The license to operate these has been fixed at $15 per quarter per machine, and only forty licenses will be issued.

Must Render Value
Hereafter full value must be given for every nickel put in the machine. There must be five sticks of gum of regulation size given to the customer, or its equivalent in other merchandise. In no instance can any machine be operated which will receive a coin larger than a nickel.

Penalties provided for violation of the ordinance are a fine of not less than $10 or more than $100, or imprisonment for not less than five or more than ninety days, or both. Regardless of whether the case is prosecuted and a conviction secured or not, it is within the power of the chief of police to revoke any permit at any time upon sufficient proof that the owner is not complying with the law.

Move it at will! With Pearl Oil in a good oil heater—you can warm up any room in the house in a jiffy. Heat you can place right where and when it is needed—to dress by comfortably in the morning, or for hall-way, sewing-room, living-room or bath. And if in ordering you say "Pearl Oil" by name, there'll be absolutely no odor—because Pearl Oil is entirely consumed by the flame. It leaves the air sweet, clean and fresh though you use it every hour of the day.

In even the best oil heaters—you should use only the highest quality kerosene. Avoid asking for "kerosene" or "coal oil," which may mean any kind of kerosene.

East and West Teams to Meet Tomorrow; Historic Rivals Ready for Clash

nell, Lehigh and Lafayette. Swarthmore and Haverford and Washington and Washington State—will settle friendly feuds tomorrow, the greatest and most consequential day of the 1923 football season. The issue, in most cases, seems to be clearly defined. Harvard, for instance, will do extremely well to hold Yale to one touchdown and will occasion no outburst of consternation if it loses by a greater margin. Yet, Harvard is Harvard and the writer, for one, looks for a small score. Incidentally, if we flop on this one, we will give over the business of picking possible winners in favor of picking losers.

You Never Can Tell
The Army is a stronger team than the Navy on paper, but paper profits were ever a snare and a delusion. But the Army should win. We are not so certain of California and Stanford, the Bears seeming to be a bit light on attack. They defeated Southern California, which, in turn, disposed of Stanford, but the latter is coming and may tip the bean pot.

The Iowa State-Grinnell affair is above and beyond our feeble resources, but we like La Fayette over Lehigh, Alabama over Georgia, Swarthmore over Haverford, Washington over Washington State, Centre college over Washington and Lee and Florida over Mississippi Aggies. Meantime, the entire country will have a speculative eye trained upon Lincoln, Neb., for the meeting of Syracuse and Nebraska with the prestige of two great sections at stake. To pick a possible winner off-hand, is not for us. However, if Nebraska plays the game it showed against Missouri and Kansas it will lose. The "ifs" seem to have it. The game incidentally, will introduce a duel of cleated shoes between Noble of Nebraska and Bowman of Syracuse, two great ball runners.

Looks Like Deadlock
The western football season is almost certain to end in a deadlock after today's games. Two of the leaders, Michigan and Minnesota, will engage in a contest of self-elimination and the third, Illinois, the winner of the fact winner over Ohio late. If the Illinois, the winner of the Michigan-Minnesota game will be declared champion and we don't mind saying that we like the Wolverines' chances. Other Big Ten games should see Iowa take a fall out of Northwestern and Chicago beat Wisconsin, but Indiana and Purdue has us stopped. So has Butler and Haskell, but Holy Cross should beat Buffalo. The Tennessee-Mississippi clash is another parlor trick. Also the Southern California-Idaho affair. However, Tulane probably has the edge on Louisiana State.

Two Andys Will Have Chance to Display Wares

By ELLIS H. MARTIN
For International News Service

BERKELEY, Nov. 23.—What have the two Andys up their sleeves?

This question today was agitating the minds of the dopesters on the eve of the big game between California and Stanford.

Andy Smith, marvelously successful center of the Bears and producer of victories where defeat grew before, always enters a game whether it is "big" or "little" with a definite plan of battle and always with a trick or two up his sleeve for emergencies.

Andy Kerr under whose tutelage the Cardinals have come up out of the football rut comes from a similar school. As the long distance representative of Pop Warner, Kerr believes in the liberal use of brains on and off the football field as a medium of winning victories.

And aside from this expectancy of something unexpected on both sides the 73,000 fans who will tomorrow pack the new stadium are looking for a memorable punt-ing duel between big Ernie Nev-ers, the 202-pound Santa Rosa boy, who will punt for Stanford, and Jack Witter, who will bear the brunt of the kicking game for California.

Witter in Shape
Witter's punting and the effective manner in which the California ends went down the field under them was a big factor in winning the Washington game for California. Witter is in good shape for tomorrow's game. Nev-ers has a world of power in his toe, but some critics believe he gets his kicks off too slowly. With California's propensity to block kicks, this supposed slowness may prove embarrassing to Stanford. However, there is bound to be a punting duel that will add thrills to the contest.

California's reputed weakness against a sustained forward pass attack may open up the game tomorrow to a surprising degree. And on the old theory of fighting fire with fire, Smith may seek to have California beat Stanford to its own game by opening up a dazzling aerial pass game.

Henderson's Men Are Ready to Battle Idaho
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—Everything is all set for tomorrow's game here in the Coliseum between the University of Idaho Vandals and the University of Southern California Trojans. It will be the closing game of the season for both squads.

Both Coach Henderson and Coach Matthews announce that all their men are in perfect shape for the fray. The Vandals have been working out in the Pasadena Rose Bowl since their arrival in the south last Tuesday and those who have seen the Idaho bunch in action predict that the Trojans will have a tough afternoon tomorrow.

A spectacular game from the fans' point of view is expected as both the Trojans and Vandals will hold back none of their tricks, this being their last appearance this year. The Vandals are credited with having the best aerial attack on the coast and Matthews says the Trojans will have plenty of chances to see it in action. Last week at Palo Alto, where Idaho met its first defeat of the year at the hands of Stanford, the Vandals completed eighteen passes against the surprised Cards, one going for a touchdown. Another pass was fumbled by an Idaho man on the Card five yard line and would have resulted in a touchdown had he held onto the ball, as there was not a Stanford player within ten feet of him.

Not Much Worried
This stuff about forward passes does not seem to worry "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, who announces that the Trojans will meet the Vandals at their own game. In "Chief" Newman the Trojans have the best forward pass slipper on the coast and Henderson is going to take advantage of Newman's gifted right arm tomorrow.

With both sides announcing their intention of using an open style of attack, one of the most interesting games of the year should result. The starting line-ups follow:

Wise Money Supports Yale to Beat Harvard
CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 23.—Odds of 3 to 2 on Yale went begging today as Harvard and Yale made ready to put in their last ticks before the final of the big three series at the stadium tomorrow.

Both teams will master their strongest lineups for the game, Yale having the same lineup that faced Princeton at the start of the battle in the bowl last Saturday. "Beat Yale!" is the cry on the Harvard campus. And the Crimson is doing everything in its power to rise to the occasion. Harvard will have its most potential backfield of the season in action, with Cheek, Hammond, Coburn, and Jenkins running the ball and McGone and Lee alternating at quarterback. The Harvard line, featuring Hubbard, Eastman and Dunker, is expected to hold its own.

Yale's backfield power, in fact, is what is expected to swing the scale in the Blue's favor. All of the regulars in both camps are in first class condition.

Army and Navy Are Ready for Big Battle

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Both the Army and Navy will engage in a short drill at the Polo grounds this afternoon in preparation for the annual service classic tomorrow, the Middles having arrived in New York last night and the Cadets will arrive early today. The betting in Wall street has made the Army a favorite at 3 to 2, with plenty of Navy money in sight.

The Cadets are due to arrive shortly before noon and after luncheon at the Hotel Astor will step out for their final practice of the year. West Point's lineup has been definitely settled, except for the possibility that Hewitt may replace Ives in the backfield.

The Navy, however, has not come to a decision on this point. Bob Polwell announcing this morning that he is considering a shift of Shapley to quarterback and the last minute insertion of Barbet in the backfield.

Postoffice Official Sells La Canada Home

E. G. Metcalf, who is soon to take charge of the parcel post department of the Glendale postoffice, has sold his La Canada store to F. S. Chase of Portrero, Calif. The La Canada postoffice is located in the store and Mr. Metcalf has been postmaster here for some time. He and his family will continue to make their home in La Canada at the parsonage, which they have leased.

Mr. Chase, the new owner, was formerly postmaster at Portrero.

House Shortage Due To Married Students

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 23.—Housing accommodations in this place, near which is located Pennsylvania State college, are in greater demand than ever before, mainly because fifty of the students at the school are married and maintain families here. A number of the students who are married were sent here by the federal authorities for training as part of the rehabilitation program.

The finest speech loses its significance compared with the smallest deed that comes from the heart.

"Petting Parties" in Class Rooms, Charge

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 23.—Is it part of a public school janitor's duties to work until dawn cleaning up the cigarette butts and other debris left by couples who retire to vacant classrooms for "petting parties" in the course of public dances at the schools? That question was before the Board of Education following a vigorous protest by the Public School Janitors' Association.

Mrs. Lucia L. Knowles, supervisor of park commission activities, and John A. Gee, superintendent of school repairs, have submitted reports in which they deny conditions alleged by the janitors.

Ulster Builds Ships for U. S. Fruit Firms

BELFAST, Nov. 23.—American fruit exporters continue to place orders with Ulster shipbuilders for the construction of new freighters and cargo boats. Vaccara Brothers, of New Orleans, and the United Fruit company, of Boston, are among the latest firms to place orders.

One's self-interest absorbs the interest that may be due to others.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Both the Army and Navy will engage in a short drill at the Polo grounds this afternoon in preparation for the annual service classic tomorrow, the Middles having arrived in New York last night and the Cadets will arrive early today. The betting in Wall street has made the Army a favorite at 3 to 2, with plenty of Navy money in sight.

The Cadets are due to arrive shortly before noon and after luncheon at the Hotel Astor will step out for their final practice of the year. West Point's lineup has been definitely settled, except for the possibility that Hewitt may replace Ives in the backfield.

The Navy, however, has not come to a decision on this point. Bob Polwell announcing this morning that he is considering a shift of Shapley to quarterback and the last minute insertion of Barbet in the backfield.

Postoffice Official Sells La Canada Home

E. G. Metcalf, who is soon to take charge of the parcel post department of the Glendale postoffice, has sold his La Canada store to F. S. Chase of Portrero, Calif. The La Canada postoffice is located in the store and Mr. Metcalf has been postmaster here for some time. He and his family will continue to make their home in La Canada at the parsonage, which they have leased.

Mr. Chase, the new owner, was formerly postmaster at Portrero.

House Shortage Due To Married Students

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 23.—Housing accommodations in this place, near which is located Pennsylvania State college, are in greater demand than ever before, mainly because fifty of the students at the school are married and maintain families here. A number of the students who are married were sent here by the federal authorities for training as part of the rehabilitation program.

"Petting Parties" in Class Rooms, Charge

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 23.—Is it part of a public school janitor's duties to work until dawn cleaning up the cigarette butts and other debris left by couples who retire to vacant classrooms for "petting parties" in the course of public dances at the schools? That question was before the Board of Education following a vigorous protest by the Public School Janitors' Association.

Mrs. Lucia L. Knowles, supervisor of park commission activities, and John A. Gee, superintendent of school repairs, have submitted reports in which they deny conditions alleged by the janitors.

Ulster Builds Ships for U. S. Fruit Firms

BELFAST, Nov. 23.—American fruit exporters continue to place orders with Ulster shipbuilders for the construction of new freighters and cargo boats. Vaccara Brothers, of New Orleans, and the United Fruit company, of Boston, are among the latest firms to place orders.

DEMAND CONTROL OF FLOOD WATERS

Sierra Avenue Resident Asks Council to Clean Out Ditch in Canyon

The matter of flood water control is constantly engaging the attention of the City Council at this time of the year, and last night the city engineer brought up for their attention a letter from P. S. McNutt, 2209 Sierra avenue, regarding the danger from flood waters in that thoroughfare, and asking that immediate steps be taken to take care of the matter.

The city engineer investigated and stated to the Council that Sierra avenue is not a natural drainage way, and in order that the position of the city might be definitely determined, the matter was referred to the city attorney for opinion.

Mr. McNutt's letter was as follows:

"To the Honorable City Council and City Manager of Glendale, Cal.:

"This is to call your attention to, and give you written notice of, the condition of Sierra avenue district and Scholl canyon in regard to unprotected conditions against flood waters. They could not be worse.

Ditch Filled Up

"The ditch along the south line of Sierra avenue extending the entire distance from Sycamore canyon road easterly to Scholl canyon, which has always carried off most of the flood waters, is filled up in many places by work of the city and by tract improvements and house building. This will allow the water to get out in the street and over our orchards. A little expense would clean it out and deepen it to three or four feet and put bridges in where people cross to their houses. There is wire, rubbish of all kinds and leaves and dirt in the ditch.

"Immediate attention is needed to save damage to our orchards and to the street. The county kept this ditch well open except for one winter when they were negligent in doing it and it cost $2,000 to repair the damage, and should have been sued by the orchardists for losses to them. Some of the hills were burned off and there will be more water than usual. This is intended as a reminder and a legal notice, which I desire kept on file in the clerk's office."

In handing the letter to the Council, City Engineer Dupuy stated:

Engineer's Report

"After reading the letter filed by P. S. McNutt, I recommend that the matter be referred to the city attorney. I have no reason why the city should be required to maintain a drain in Sierra avenue for flood waters from these canyons. Sierra avenue is not a natural drainage course and any action taken by the city to make it a drainage course would place the city in a position of being liable to damages from the overflow of flood waters.

"We will open the ditch on the south side to a certain extent, but will not attempt to make this an outlet for the water from these canyons, until the street is graded and paved, at which time it will probably be constructed so as to receive all of the flood waters of the canyons."

A whistling buoy, reported lost from the St. Lawrence river a year ago, was washed ashore at Bryher, one of the Scilly Islands, 3000 miles away.

Xavius Zantippe Missing; Secret Pact Rumored As Rival Candidates Confer

By H. THOMPSON RICH
Of The Evening News Staff

Professor Xavius Zantippe, meal ticket presidential nominee, has vanished. He has disappeared, in short, and has not been seen since. And—here is dark business!—he was last seen in company with this upstart from Tujunga, August September, Esq., who recently nominated himself on the laundry ticket, hoping to secure the Chinese vote of the Tujunga river basin and laundry tubs.

Before departing with his friendly enemy, who sells hilltop real estate for exercise, Professor Zantippe left word at nomination headquarters that he was going to escrow. It is now feared that he may still be there. Mr. September, however, pooh-poohs the idea, stating that they spent only one day and one night in escrow and that the hotel accommodations, while very poor, were nevertheless all either of them were used to.

"It is just possible," admitted Mr. September, "that he is shut up in the folding bed of the Tujunga river. He was very tired after coming out of escrow and might have stopped for a rest on the way home."

Nominee Vanishes

Upon opening up the bed of the river, however, no trace of the missing nominee was found. It was then decided to make known their fears to his wife. When told that her husband had gone to escrow with August September, Esq., and had not been seen since, she at once became hysterical but had calmed down somewhat by the time the reporter appeared for the interview.

"I have looked all over the map of California," said Mrs. Zantippe, "and I can't find that place Escrow anywhere. And they don't seem to know anything about it outside of this state. What am I going to do?" She wrung her hands, running them through the winger. "Oh, I want my Xavius."

Once more the good woman became hysterical. When she had been soothed somewhat by having tendered her by the resourceful reporter an all-day sucker, bay rum flavor, she burst out into violent invective against the upstart September.

Discovered Tujunga

"That cheap opportunist had better lay off the invention stuff," she declared. "Why, my Xavius has invented more in the past week than Mr. September ever invented, except hot air. And my Xavius is the man who invented ice. As for discoveries, it was Professor Xavius Zantippe that discovered Tujunga anyhow, in September of 1921—when he discovered the overflow of flood waters."

"We will open the ditch on the south side to a certain extent, but will not attempt to make this an outlet for the water from these canyons, until the street is graded and paved, at which time it will probably be constructed so as to receive all of the flood waters of the canyons."

CAST IS CHOSEN FOR JUNIOR PLAY

Three-Act Comedy to Be Staged by Occidental
Students, Dec. 6-7

The Occidental college annual junior play is well under way now and much excitement has been created around the campus as to the play, "Plots and Playwrights" by Edward Massey, which has made such a hit throughout the east and middle west. The Junior class has been fortunate in securing Arthur Luben as director for their production. The director and the cast of fifteen members are working with enthusiasm to make the play most successful.

Tryouts were held some time ago and after elimination the best available talent in the institution has been obtained. Most of the cast have taken part in two or more college productions and are excellent in dramatics, having attained the distinction of becoming members in the Arden Dramatics Society of Occidental.

"Plots and Playwrights" is a howling three-act comedy, a riot of melodramas, overflowing with satire which has taken the country by storm. It is said to be one of the big plays of the season.

The stage decorations are very elaborate and the numerous settings have made necessary the use of many gorgeous furnishings. The play, "Plots and Playwrights," is to be presented on both Thursday and Friday evenings, December 6 and 7, in the auditorium of the Eagle Rock Grammar school at 8:15 p. m.

Tickets will be on sale for the general public next week at the student book store.

The complete cast in the order of their appearance is as follows:

Protest Improvement of Mountain Street

G. W. Finney, 1953 Mountain avenue, appeared before the City Council last night and protested against the proposed improvement of this avenue, Elm street and Watson court.

He stated that the proposed work was not comprehensive enough in its scope to meet the demands of that section of the city, and requested the city to circulate a petition among the residents asking that, instead of merely paving, the work should include gutters and curbs.

The proceedings for this work will be delayed long enough for the city engineer to find out the sentiment of the majority of the property holders regarding the additional work requested.

ADOPT NEW PLAN FOR CHECK DAMS

Work in Burned Area Will Be Supervised by Flood Control Officials

A hitch developed at the last minute in the transfer of $2500 from the Los Angeles county flood control district to the city of Glendale for the construction of check dams in the burned area in the San Rafael hills, and consequently the work will have to be done by the flood control district authorities.

They had stated that they were not in a position at this time to carry on this work, although the money was available. Supervisor Wright then fostered a plan to turn the appropriation over to Glendale and let this city superintend the installation of the dams.

The City Council was about to pass a resolution to this effect last night, when City Manager Reeves received word from Supervisor Wright that this could not be done, hence the work will be under the charge of the flood control district.

It is understood that they will make an emergency measure of it, however, and have the dams in place in time to prevent heavy damage from the winter rains.

City Given Decision in Marr Bond Suit

City Attorney Ray L. Morrow received word from the clerk of the Superior Court in Los Angeles late yesterday that the city had won its case against Winifred Marr, in the action which she brought to have the bonds voted for the laying of gas mains in Verdugo Woodlands declared illegal.

While Judge Walton Wood has declared that the decision will be given in favor of the Southern California Gas company and the city of Glendale, formal judgment has not been rendered, and the method of disposing of the money derived from the sale of the bonds, which is still on hand, has not been decided upon as yet.

The plaintiff has sixty days in which to file an appeal.

Tumbling Marks Mystify Kirk On Journey Through Germany's Leading Cities

A cup of coffee that cost 1,650,000,000 marks is one part of the story of the sadly depreciated German mark as told in a most interesting manner in the travel letter today from W. B. Kirk.

W. B. KIRK

In a recent letter Mr. Kirk inclosed a 50,000,000 mark bank note worth just one cent in American money. In his letter today he tells of money values as he found them in Germany.

He writes "Stuttgart, October 24. Since we have been in Germany we have had cloudy and rainy weather. Saturday, Sunday and Monday were showery and cloudy, so that the country is well soaked and the roads very muddy. Yesterday (Tuesday), however, the sun rose clear and we had a fine day here.

"On Thursday, while shopping a little in Basle, I stepped into a bank trying to pick up a few more United States one and two-dollar bills, and the banker, knowing that I wanted them for use in Germany, asked me if I wanted some marks. I inquired as to their exchange value and he offered me 23 milliards (billions, remember), for an English pound.

"As the last quotation I had seen was about 15 milliards and as I knew I would have to have some next day, I bought a pound's worth, thinking I was a pretty good financier. Imagine my chagrin then when, on reaching Freiburg, the first place where I needed any, to find that I could get 35 milliards to the pound or eight and a half to the dollar.

In Real Money

"On registering at the hotel the proprietor quoted me a rate of $3 a day. United States money, for two rooms, including all taxes and tips. When I paid the bill however, it was $4.50 for the day, but as the rooms were splendid and the fare good and cheap, I made no kick.

"Lunch and dinner (table d'hôte) cost us about $1.50 each, for three people, and breakfast about half that. In the meantime the mark had dropped to about 11 milliards to the dollar.

"At Heidelberg the Hotel Europaishof made us a rate of $1 United States, including everything and for the two days we were there they kept their contract. I had some of the meals charged to our rooms and when I settled the mark had fallen to 22 milliards to the dollar, so I Basle to Freiburg, was 32 Swiss francs, which is nearly $6 for a distance of about 40 miles. From Freiburg to Heidelberg, however, an eight and a half hour ride, it was only about $3 in our money.

"On that ride we were with a Jewish couple, who were just re-

COUNCIL TO AID PLAN FOR BRIDGE

Improvement of Los Feliz Is Urged in Letter From
C. of C. Secretary

The city council will co-operate with the Glendale Chamber of Commerce and other bodies in an endeavor to have the condition of Los Feliz road improved, also in an attempt to have a new bridge built over the Los Angeles river for this popular artery.

A communication was received from E. F. Sanders, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, asking their assistance in the matter, and as a result a letter will be addressed to the city council of Los Angeles. Mr. Sanders wrote:

"At the regular meeting of the board of directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce held last night, the matter of a new bridge over the Los Angeles river at Los Feliz road and the repairing of the Los Feliz road from the railroad crossing to the foot of the grade, was most thoroughly discussed. Accidents are occurring on this road almost daily.

Bridge Unsafe, Claim

"I need not call the attention of the city council to the shape this road is now in and the unsafe condition of the bridge. I was instructed by the board of directors to write to our honorable city council and ask them if they would be kind enough to direct a letter to the city council of Los Angeles, requesting them to give this immediate attention.

"I understand that two-thirds of the money accruing from the motor vehicle fund during the next year will be received by the county. This certainly ought to furnish sufficient funds to keep the roads in splendid condition.

"Will you be kind enough to get a letter from the city council of Glendale to the city council of Los Angeles asking for relief in this most important matter?"

CHARGE CONSPIRACY

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The United States district attorney's office is investigating reports that a gigantic rum conspiracy has been smuggling vast quantities of liquor into this country from Europe and through a well-organized system in the principal cities on the eastern seaboard. A number of prominent Americans and Englishmen are said to be involved in the alleged conspiracy.

TUJUNGA FIRE TAKES TWO FOOTHILL HOMES

Residences Wiped Out During Absence of Owners; Fear Loss of Valuables

Two houses, one in Tujunga and one in Sunland, were destroyed, with all the contents, Wednesday by fires of unknown origin. Twenty acres of brush were also burned when fire from one house spread to the adjoining property. Over 100 volunteer fire fighters subdued the blaze with difficulty.

Early in the day the home of
M. E. High, in the Olive Grove tract, Sunland, burned, and about noon the home of Thomas J.
Smith, artist, near Lakeview street, in the Tujunga hills, was consumed. No one was at home at either place, and considerable mystery surrounds the occurrence.

Fear Valuables Lost
Mr. Smith is an artist and was formerly connected with the Smithsonian Institute, and has traveled extensively in foreign lands. His house had not been finished, but was furnished exceptionally well, and neighbors expressed the fear that some valuable souvenirs picked up in his travels may have been in the house when it burned. According to neighbors, Mr. Smith left home Tuesday to be gone a couple of three days.

MONTROSE WILL HOLD FIRST SERVICE SUNDAY

Rev. G. Durr Assumes Pastorate of M. E. Church;
Plan Building

Members of the Methodist denomination have established their first church in Montrose and will hold the first services next Sunday, November 25, at the home of J. J. Kellar, corner of Montrose avenue and Glenada street, with Rev. George S. Durr as pastor.
James S. Brown will superintend the Sunday school department.

W. B. Collins, acting for the church, has purchased a large lot at the corner of Montrose avenue and Myra Vista avenue, on which it is planned to erect a temporary building immediately and later build a church to cost $20,000.
Sale of the property was handled by Carter & Griffith of Montrose.

Pastor New Arrival
Rev. Durr is a recent arrival from the east. Mr. Brown recently resigned as superintendent of the La Crescenta Community church Sunday school to help organize the new church, which will be known as the Montrose Community church.

Mrs. A. F. Hopkins, who was appointed chairman of a committee to organize community singing in Montrose, wishes to hear from anyone capable of leading a number of people in song who will act in that capacity at the service. Mrs. Hopkins' address is 321 Hermosa avenue, Mont-

Well Known Circus Man Is Dead; News and Notes Of Southern California

LONG BEACH, Nov. 23.—Funeral arrangements were to be made today for George Earl Robinson, well known circus man and part owner of the Clarence A. Wortham shows, who died in a local hospital. Mr. Robinson was taken ill while moving the show from San Antonio, Texas, its winter quarters. His condition became so serious he was removed to a hospital here, suffering from nervousness.

Life as an advance agent for the Wortham shows at Danville, Ill., and rose to general agent and part owner of the Wortham organization. He was 49 years old, and is survived by a widow and one sister, Mrs. Viola Stanton, of Portland, Ore.

Silent on Slaying

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 23.—
Authorities are meeting with little success in their effort to solve the mystery surrounding the reported murder of August Howard, San Pedro fisherman, who is said to have met his death early this week on the lonely, wild coast of San Miguel Island during a battle between rival fishing crews for certain favored grounds. This is but another chapter written in the feudal history centering upon and around the island.

Officers investigating the slay-ing have met with only impenetrable silence, the fishing crews refusing all information regarding the mystery.

Buy Four Planes

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 23.—
Santa Barbara's aerial fleet will include at least five planes when four local men's orders have been filled. C. A. Plunkett is now operating one ship as a passenger carrier, while announcement has been made by Commodore Earle Ovington of the local Aero club that planes have been ordered by Dwight Paulding, B. H. Rothwell,
L. G. Vinson and one by Mr.
Ovington, himself.

Showman Passes

LONG BEACH, Nov. 23.—
George A. Robinson, 49, nationally known circus man and one of the owners of the Clarence A.
Wortham Shows, died at a local hospital yesterday morning, following a brief illness. He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Harriet Robinson, and a sister in Portland, Ore.

The funeral probably will be in charge of the Pacific Coast Showmen's association, with the assistance of the Elks and Masons, of which organizations Mr. Robinson was a member.

Buy Gas Co. Plant

LONG BEACH, Nov. 23.—Concluding negotiations that began soon after a bond issue of $3,000, 000 was voted in August, the city of Long Beach is to become the owner of the Southern Counties Gas company's plant here. The council voted to pay the gas company $2,625,000 for the plant, equipment, vehicles, offices and good-will for all of Long Beach proper, for Seal Beach and territory immediately surrounding that city and for the small communities north and northeast of Long Beach.

Citrus Shipments

ANAHEIM, Nov. 23.—More than one-fifth of the total citrus fruit crop of California last year was shipped from Orange county, according to figures made public here. Of the 59,583 cars of oranges and lemons shipped from the state, the report shows that 10,956 cars came from Orange county. This is exclusive of a comparatively small amount of grapefruit. While the figures are not available for this year's crop, estimates from reliable sources indicate that the total will exceed that of last year by approximately 25 per cent.

Invite President

SANTA ANA, Nov. 23.—President Coolidge has been invited by telegram to send a personal rep-

Knock Out Boxing

SANTA ANA, Nov. 23.—Boxing bouts and dancing in public halls in Orange county in territory not incorporated have been given their death blow by an ordinance passed by the county board of supervisors. The former is abolished entirely by the ordinance, while on the latter form of amusement a yearly license fee of $200 is imposed. Heavy penalties are provided for violation of the anti-boxing ruling.

Block Sewer Farm

ANAHEIM, Nov. 23.—What is thought will be the last community in Orange county to disincor-porate is the city of Orangehorpe.
A petition asking for the disincor-poration of the city charter has been circulated in Orangehorpe, which has a population of 600 people. Since the purpose for which the village was incorporated—that of saving Fullerton residents approximately $7,000—has been accomplished, the plan to disincor-porate has been started. By making a "city" of Orangehorpe, plans for locating a sewer farm for Fullerton in that vicinity were foreclosed, thus effecting a large saving.

Damage Property

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 23.—Police and school authorities are trying to locate a vandal or group of vandals who destroyed several hundred dollars' worth of property in the Sherman school here. Besides damaging the desk of Principal M. D. Boucher, the miscreants broke sixteen other desks in the building and scattered papers, books and ink over the floors.
How entrance to the building was gained is a mystery to those investigating the incident, as all the windows and doors were found intact. It is believed the act was perpetrated by mischievous boys.

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 23.—The sixth of the Hollywood Theatres, Incorporated will be erected on a site leased in Crescent Heights, according to an announcement made by J. Leslie Swope, manager of the chain of theatres.
This new playhouse is to have a seating capacity of 1,200 persons and will be equipped with late model projection machines, in addition to a large stage for vaudeville productions.

H. Loeffler, who has been engaged in the baking trade in Glendale for the past twelve years, working with the leading bakeries in the city during that time, has launched out on his own account, and will open a bakery at 210 South Central avenue where he will turn out all kinds of plain and fancy bread, cakes and pastry. The products of the bakery will be sold in the store that will be opened as a part of the establishment.

Mr. Loeffler has installed the latest mixing machinery and his ovens are built to care for a steadily growing trade.

A profit of $750 in less than seven days is reported by Frederick C. Wolter of the Wolter Realty company, 203 North Brand boulevard, as having been made by one of the buyers at Crestview Manor.

"This profit was made, more-we made our announcement that a $3000 new 1924 Packard automobile will be given away to the lucky one at Crestview Manor.

There are just thirty-five lots and a chance goes with each lot.
When all thirty-five are sold the drawing will be made."

"This is an opportunity of a lifetime. Not only does the buyer immediate profit may be made, but he also becomes one of thirty-

THE GLENDALE

To answer the startling question, "Is Divorce a Failure?" is to see the film of that name now showing at the Glendale Theatre, with Leah Baird in the featured role. More than any picture leaving the studios in recent months, this one strikes to the core of a present-day evil. The large audiences seeing it daily and nightly testify to the message it has to teach.

Arthur F. Beck, who presents Associated Exhibitors, chose a splendid cast to support Miss Baird. Richard Tucker takes the role of the husband, Walter Mc-Grail as the "other" man, Tom Santchi, a two-fisted "he" man, and Alec B. Francis as the meddling but well-meaning friend, Wallace Worsley, who directed Miss Baird's previous success,
"When Husbands Deceive," also wielded the megaphone on this film.

The lots are large and beautiful.
Quick action is necessary to get in on this."

THE GATEWAY

"The Light That Failed," world-famous Rudyard Kipling novel, is the feature at the Gateway Theatre today. Produced by Paramount with a lavish expenditure of resources, with Director George Melford in charge and a cast that includes Jacqueline Logan, Percy Marmont, David Torrence and Mabel Van Buren, the picture stands out as one of the achievements of the year.

The millions who have read Kipling's book or seen the play know "The Light That Failed" for one of their favorite stories, a tale that strangely grips the heart. It concerns Dick Helder and Maisie Wells and Bessie Broke, the former an artist, Mal-sie his boyhood sweetheart and Bessie a girl of the streets. Dick has loved Maisie all his life but somehow she cannot love him.
When his eyes fail, however,
right at the threshold of success, she comes to him in spite of all, in this version.

With the best rider a blind horse is liable to stumble.

Big Crowd to Attend Opening of Ball Park

SALE OF SEATS
NOW UNDER WAY

Dedication of Grounds to Be Notable Event Next Sunday Afternoon

Arrangements to handle the biggest crowd that ever attended an athletic event in Glendale are being made by the management of Glendale's new ball park for the opening game of the Triple A league next Sunday, with Shell Oil as the visitors.

If the demand for reserved seats, which were placed on sale today at Cornwell & Kelly's hardware store, 107 South Brand boulevard, is indicative of the crowd that will be on hand, all available seating space will be taken long before the game is called. In order to accommodate the throng, cars will be allowed to park for this game along the fence in center field. Only box seats, at 75 cents, are reserved. The general admission ticket, for 50 cents, carries with it a seat in the grandstand.

Arrange Program

The full program of the opening ceremonies will be made public tomorrow. These will start at 2 o'clock sharp, with the umpire calling "Play ball" at 2:30 o'clock in order that the game may be over before dark. Manager Frank A. Kerwin stated yesterday that it would be the policy of the management to start the games on the dot, so those who come late will miss the prelude.

In a conversation with Grant Leischner and Mike Donlin, who, with Kerwin, own the Glendale franchise, yesterday, they stated that any Glendale boy who showed enough class to entitle him to consideration would be given a try-out with the team. Consequently "Slim" Harris and Acosta, the fast guardian of the third corner for the Glendale Athletic club team, will probably be given a chance to show their wares in the near future. Harris has attracted the attention of Mike Donlin, who thinks he has the making of a good twirler with the proper coaching.

Plenty of Stars

There will be stars galore in attendance Sunday. "Flet" Donahue of the Cincinnati Reds, who is wintering in Glendale; Howard Ehmske, Glendale boy with the Boston Red Sox; Fred Clarke of Pittsburgh, Frank Chance of the old Cub machine, and a host of other baseball stars will be introduced to the crowd.

The line-up of the two teams was announced today as follows: Glendale: P. O'Brien, cf; Manusch, lf; Herman, rf; O. Crandall, 2b; Doran, 3b; Donlin, 1b; Bedell, ss; M. O'Brien, c; A. Crandall and Heidler, p.

Harvard and Yale Battle In Ancient Gridiron Feud

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 23.—Modern protagonists of an ancient feud, Harvard and Yale will meet in the hollow of the Harvard Stadium tomorrow afternoon in the ultimate classic of this football season, as it has been of all others since time immemorial. The game is football's great moment—pulsing, electric and altogether second to none.

Harvard and Yale are the Oxford and Cambridge of American sport; the last word in athletic consequence by right of self-creation. Atmosphere and a crowd of some 55,000 does the rest.

This season Harvard-Yale football stands for more in an athletic sense than it has since the early post-Haughton days at Cambridge. The Crimson, true enough, finished second to Dartmouth, later soundly beaten by Cornell, and could only pull out a tie with Middlebury; yet the eleven rallied around a victory at Princeton and gave every indication of being poised to meet future trouble with head high and both hands swinging. It is neither well to count chickens nor Harvard defeats before they are hatched.

Yale Looks Best

Yale, at any rate, has no such inclination. It has not scored a victory over Harvard in football since that distant day when Coy roamed at large, and, consequently, is taking nothing for granted. Yale has, by long odds, the better record of the two, and defensively and offensively seems to be far superior to the present Harvard outfit, but—Harvard football and psychology go hand in hand.

As a team to team proposition there appears to be no contest. The Yale line from end to end is unusually strong in all departments, with second string men little, if anything, behind the first choices in ability. In the backfield Yale has at least two sets of men who rank with the best in the country. The first quartette is made up of Richeson, Mallory, Neale and Pond. In general effectiveness it hasn't a thing on the second combination of Murphy, Neidlinger, Stevens and Bench, unless it is the fact that Richeson, the "man with the quarterback's mind," is believed Murphy's superior as a strategist.

"Heady" Quarterback

Richeson is said to be the first real quarterback Yale has had in ten years, and his presence behind the line is one of several answers to Yale's fine record to date. He has been the inspiration for the really fine overhead and running attack that the Blue uncovered in beating the Army and other strong teams this season, his choice of plays and ability to drive the team being conspicuous at all times.

Harvard has no quarterback to compare with him, much less a backfield that can stack up with Yale's. In the line it can give a better account of itself with Hubbard, Dunker and Eastman available. Yet there are no two ways about the fact that Harvard is outclassed in pre-game figures, holding its own only in the matter of kicking, with Hammond, Jenkins and Cordingley lined up against Neale, of Yale.

His Crazy Quilt Suit Contains 2887 Pieces

DENVER, Nov. 23.—Downtown Denver traffic was congested when A. T. Vandewater, 70-year-old Oklahoma farmer, paraded sixteenth street wearing his "crazy quilt" suit of clothes.

Vandewater was accompanied by his wife, who informed the curious that she made the suit herself, which consisted of 2887 pieces. It took her six weeks and three days to accomplish the gaudy affair.

BULL TO MEET HACKENSCHMIDT

Grapplers to Again Battle In Local Ring; Three Fights on Card

Responding to the demands of the local fans who have been asking for a return match ever since they wrestled to a draw on Labor day, Manager Les Marston, of the Glendale Athletic club, has played a trump card and matched "Bull" Montana with Hackenschmidt, the local grappler, for a finish match next Tuesday night, November 27, as the main event in the regular weekly card.

On the September holiday, these two men crowded two hours and five minutes of action into a match in which neither could secure a fall. Both have been asking for a return match, and they have now been given their chance. The bout is sure to attract a large crowd, as both of the principals have a large following in Glendale. "Bull" being especially popular for an outsider. Hackenschmidt is very confident that he can throw the movie man, and has been "rarin'" for a chance to make his statements good.

Three Boxing Bout

There will be three fights on the card in addition to the main event. In the semi-windup, Sammy Waltz, who fought the main event last Tuesday night, against Larry Smith, will meet Ernie Stocker, who has won by the knockout route from Battling Chico and Joe Rickey, in the local ring, recently. He will have his work cut out for him, if he thinks he can put away this way, however, as the Angeleno is a very clever ring general, as he demonstrated against Smith, when he weathered three rounds that might be aptly termed "hectic."

There will be a return bout between Kid Payl and Jack Carr, who fought a four-round draw here some time ago, and as a curtain raiser, Young Kerns, of the local club will take on Young Loncho, of Pasadena.

WARNS POLOISTS OF U. S. PLAYERS

British Team Must Speed Up to Defeat Americans, Declares Expert

By LUTHER A. HUSTON
For International News Service
LONDON, Nov. 23.—British polo players will have to learn to "speed up" if they expect to compete successfully against American poloists in the international test matches next year, in the opinion of Lord Cholmondeley, one of the stars of the English polo squadron that invaded the United States in September.

The American players, Lord Cholmondeley says, win their games chiefly through speed and superior team play. The English players, once they are cured of the bad habits taught them by their masters, are equal if not slightly superior to the American mounts.

"The Americans," Lord Cholmondeley declared on his return from the United States, "seem to go at twice our speed. They make every shot by not touching their pony's mouth. They take their man at once instead of waiting for him to hit the ball, and they take the ball, if possible, before it hits the boards and so speed up the game."

When we first arrived all three of our teams seemed painfully slow. My own ponies appeared third class, as they had got into the bad habit of their master, who was checking on all his shots. The longer we played the more we got into the American style, and my own ponies appeared more to hold their own against the best American ponies.

"In the coming international matches, however, we ought to be

Local Football Team Ready For Contest With San Bernardino

FACTS ABOUT THE GAME

Schools—San Bernardino, champions of the Central league.
Date—Saturday, November 24, at 2:15 p. m.
Place—Chaffey Union High school field, Ontario.

HOW TO GET THERE

Drive out Foothill boulevard through Claremont to Euclid avenue. This street may be identified by the street car line which crosses Foothill boulevard. Turn to the right and go south about two miles on Euclid avenue, to the Chaffey Union High school grounds. Distance from Glendale—Forty miles.

Those who plan to attend the game should leave Glendale by 12 o'clock, and in no case later than 12:30 o'clock.

The Pacific Electric runs direct to Ontario, as does the bus line from Los Angeles.

TICKETS

Student body tickets are not good at this game. General admission is 50 cents. Student tickets are 25 cents if bought here today. General admission for students at the gate is 50 cents. Tickets will be sold today at the ticket booth on the high school grounds until 4:45 o'clock. General admission tickets will also be on sale today at the booth for the accommodation of those who plan to attend the game and do not wish the inconvenience or bother of looking after this detail after arriving at the field at Ontario.

The final workout before the championship San Bernardino game Saturday was held on Moyle field yesterday afternoon, and twenty-four young men in mole-skins chased a football up and down the gridiron with a spirit of determination that points well to a successful conclusion of hostilities when the sun sets on the afternoon of November 24.

Coach Hayhurst had the second team opposed to the first, with San Bernardino's trick formations, most of which were smeared by the regulars before they got well under way. There is a wealth of material in Glendale's second string, however, as was ably demonstrated in the game against Van Nuys, when, going on in the second half, they literally swept their opponents off their feet.

Every man in the squad is in first class condition with the exception of Captain "Ronny" West, and he will be able to go in part of the game if called upon, although Coach Hayhurst does not figure on starting him.

No Heavy Work-Out

There will be only a light signal drill this afternoon, as no chances of injury will be taken with any of the regulars. The announcement in The Evening News yesterday that Glendale would be outweighed seven pounds to the man has not acted as a damper on the spirits of the student body. On the contrary, it has served as an incentive to better support for the team, and never in the history of the school has so much interest been displayed as there is at present. The demand for student tickets at the booth on the high school grounds is exceptionally heavy, and the pilgrimage to Ontario on Saturday bids fair to be a large one. The San Bernardino team has been scouted and their strong points noted. It has never been the policy of Coach Hayhurst, however, to direct his defense against any one individual star. The results of this practice were seen in Glendale last Friday when Covina men were so busy watching "Buzzy" Elliott that they let Ryan and Walton slip through their line on off tackle bucks for two touchdowns.

Fans Like Locals

As the time for the game draws near, the Glendale fans like the chances of their team much better than they have heretofore. Not once during the present season has an opponent broken through the first and second line of defense to be stopped by the safety man. This shows what a stone wall the Glendale line is, although of only average weight.

"Naturally a good heavy man is better than a good light man," said Coach Hayhurst yesterday. "But I am convinced the speed is the first essential possession of any high school player."

Glendale will have no special plans for the overthrow of San Bernardino. They will follow the same consistent game they have played throughout the season, which brought them the Central league championship.

For those who cannot attend the game, The Evening News has made arrangements to have the result transmitted to this office immediately after the game is over, which should be about 5 o'clock. Phone Glendale 132 and ask for the result of the Glendale-San Bernardino football game.

Village Healthiest on Earth, Is Claim

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Everington, in East Yorkshire, stakes its claim as the healthiest village in England, according to its vicar, the Rev. Maistre.

Rev. Maistre says he has not had a funeral in his parish of 300 inhabitants for over three years. Doctors are unknown in that part of the world, he says.

PLANS FLIGHT TO FAR NORTH

Tribute Is Now Offered To Admiral Peary

Lieut. Ralph E. Davison, navy flier who will make the trip, and novel type of plane he will use.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The request of Captain Amundsen, famous polar explorer, to the navy department that a navy flier be permitted to accompany Amundsen's party on its attempt to fly to the north pole, carries with it more than the recognition of the intrepid spirit of the American fliers.

According to H. H. Hamer, American representative of the explorer, the request is a tribute to the greatness of Admiral Peary, foremost of American travelers of the world, and the man who discovered the north pole.

Secretary of the Navy Denby has named Lieut. Ralph E. Davison for the flight.

Several trips over the pole are planned from a base established on the ice peaks 450 miles from the island of Spitzbergen. The flying ships will be equipped with radio apparatus.

Davison is a native of Missouri. He is an authority on navigation and the theory of aeronautical flight. He was chosen from a list of thirty officers who volunteered

Artists and Players of Early Days In Glendale Recalled by Old Timer

By OLD TIMER
Of The Evening News Staff.

The appearance on the stage of the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse on "Charter Day," of a quaint figure dressed in a flowered silk gown whose slender waist and flowing skirt spoke of the fashions of long ago, whose face was concealed by a huge green "calash" or wired bonnet with a shirred brim reaching far over the face of the wearer, recalled to many present an interesting occasion in the early days of Glendale.

It was at a "Mother Goose" party in the old Odd Fellows hall above Fraley's grocery, corner of Third (Wilson) street that Mrs. Church wore the costume which had belonged to her mother and was a real antique, and impersonated the wife from "London Town" who was brought home "on a wheelbarrow," the said wheelbarrow being propelled by Mr. Church.

In those days, as many will recall, no theatres with gleaming fronts and intriguing posters summoned those in search of entertainment; no lighted streets invited the townspeople abroad at night. Yet the town was not lacking in entertainment, lectures, concerts, sailing parties, beach and camping trips being the popular form of amusement.

Many Talented People
The early settlers were of an educated class and included a number of talented people who contributed to the social life of the community. As in most communities, in those early days the social life centered around the churches and schools. Later the G. A. R. and fraternal societies, the Odd Fellows, Good Templars, Masons and others, furnished the necessary outlet for those socially inclined.

Glendale was known as a community which appreciated good music, good lectures and good entertainments, and efforts along these lines met with a splendid response.

One of the musicians whose name appears on the early programs was J. E. Fiske, who came with his family to Glendale in 1885 and made his home in Sycamore Canyon on the knoll at the right of what is now Sierra avenue. Mr. Fiske, who was a vocal teacher, it is said "was a man of fine presence and a singer of unusual excellence." Mrs. Fiske was the organist at the Glendale Presbyterian church for years and was still filling that position when the writer came to Glendale in 1905, but Mr. Fiske had died. Their daughter, Mrs. Frank Albright, formerly of Glendale but now living in El Centro, was active in the social, church and club life of Glendale.

Sons Were Musicians
Two sons, Samuel and Dana Fiske, were also talented musicians and at a later date with Miss Eva Byram (now Mrs. J. M. Banker) and Miss Ruth Byram composed a quartette which was in great demand at church and social functions.

Charles Byram, of Los Angeles, a cousin of the Byrams, was a member of the Ellis and Enterpin clubs and was a frequent visitor in Glendale, taking part in a number of programs.

Peter Silea, who lived in Ninth street (Windsor Road) just east of "A" street (Adams) is also mentioned as a teacher and a pianist of ability.

Nor was the lecture field neglected. In 1904 under the auspices of the Tuesday Afternoon club, Mrs. Emma Greenleaf, of Long Beach, a prominent clubwoman and a brilliant speaker of those days, gave a lecture on "The Empress Josephine," the club members dressing in costumes of that period.

MUSICAL COMEDY

Rehearsal for 'Oh-Ho' Going Smoothly as Production Rounds Into Shape

Rehearsals for "Oh-Ho" are progressing splendidly. This is the report brought from the Tuesday Afternoon Club by Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, chairman of the show committee that is planning the production of this musical extravaganza two weeks hence.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club has had some fine testimonials regarding "Oh-Ho" from other cities in which it has been given. Lucius Jarvis, chairman of the Rotary Club Committee of Pasadena, that handled "Oh-Ho" last season, claims the show ranked ahead of all amateur productions that have been seen in Pasadena in many years. Exalted Ruler Criddle, of the Riverside Elks, writes that "Oh-Ho" in Riverside, in March last, was the biggest success both artistically and financially of all shows ever given in Riverside.

Scored in San Diego

The recent San Diego presentation of "Oh-Ho" was a brilliant event, sponsored by Coronado and San Diego society in support of San Diego's leading charity. San Francisco and Oakland, as well as Sacramento, Fresno and Stockton have reported the great entertaining qualities of the "Oh-Ho" show.

A cast of more than fifty will present "Oh-Ho" here. John Reber, who has directed all "Oh-Ho" productions in California is in charge of the rehearsals, and promises a rare theatrical treat when "Oh-Ho" is staged.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club is lending every assistance toward making this show the finest thing that has been staged with an all-local cast in Glendale. The stagings will be at the Tuesday Afternoon Club theatre two weeks hence.

Tumbling Marks Mystify Kirk on European Trip

precitated so much that he didn't have enough of them to pay their fare. He said he had some United States money, which he showed me, but that he wasn't going to let them have that. I asked him why, and he said that was real money and he was going to keep it. When I remarked that the railroad company demanded real money from us for our fare to Freiburg and he wouldn't spend his, he showed some confusion and he saw the point. He said he would see that we got full value in marks for our dollars in Berlin.

Heidelberg From Hills

"The rain kept us in at Heidelberg on Sunday, but Monday was clearing and we went up the hill to the Konigsstuhl, 3000 feet, on the funicular, where we had a magnificent view of the old town, the little river, which runs through it, and of the Rhine, which winds its way in the distance.

"The trees which cover the hillsides are 'some picture,' I assure you. On the way down we stopped at the old castle, celebrated in song and story. It is surely a fine ruin. The vines and ivy which cling to it and the grass, trees and walks, which cover several acres all about it, give it a finer setting than any castle we have seen.

"We passed the old cathedral, which shows its age—very sadly—and I saw several of the university buildings, but didn't enter them. How have the mighty fallen!

"We found Stuttgart a fine large business city, much more so than I had supposed! Both its business and residence sections are very substantial. Its population is about 300,000, but you wouldn't think it as large as Los Angeles.

"We always inquire for the best hotel in Germany and found the Marquard a splendid one. The rain let up for a day and Tuesday was beautiful, so we had a nice two hour carriage ride over the city, the finish of which was through a large park where the old fashioned 'woody' small took us back to our childhood days.

Big Crop of Children

"From a high hill we had excellent views of the entire city and country beyond. On the drive we noted the large number of children to be seen. They are surely growing a good crop of them. On a sign we saw the name 'Frank' and were reminded that our old friend Eugene Frank, the artist, one of the pioneers and up-builders of Glendale, was born in Stuttgart. He wouldn't be ashamed of his birthplace I assure you.

"From one business block we saw a large United States flag waving, and maybe it didn't look good to us! I presume it was our consulate. To date we have had no reason to get in touch with one of our consuls, so haven't taken any of our time or of his in order to do so.

"The decline of the mark has been so rapid that we secure only what we need of them from day to day. On Tuesday, however, the Stuttgart banks received none of them from Berlin so I could get none. Besides there are such crowds in the banks that a door-keeper lets the people in and out, a la bargain day in Los Angeles department stores. By making a purchase with an English half pound note, we received enough change to pay for our dinner, and I liquidated my bills at the hotel in United States money."

Another travel letter from Mr. Kirk will be published soon in The Glendale Evening News.

Calluvius is credited with the invention of a submarine gun for projecting Greek fire.

COMMENT

That's All

Sad Story by Gloomy Guys. Some Words of Wisdom. Get Your Homesite Today! Land Owner Gets Applause.

By Gil A. Cowan

Rather difficult to talk with a person pessimistic about Southern California. And such there be, particularly those who have made unwise investments. They remind one of the cat trying to claw a plaything from out of the coils.

In other words, our burned brethren are hoping that disaster overtakes all the successful sons of the southland. They are mostly the people who are outside, looking in upon the Thanksgiving table heaped high.

Ah, it is a sad story the gloomy guys tell us down here in the Imperial valley, where the sun shines all the time—and the electric lights occasionally flicker. Yes, they talk of fortunes made in real estate, by those who were "played for suckers" by the salesmen. And these pessimists point loudly to the fact that not one real estate man in five has made anything like the profits he promises prospective customers.

It is a pretty pertinent argument, too, for the people who HAVE profited are mostly recent arrivals in our midst. They have come in from the east and south and skimmed the milk of its cream while the rest of us have provided the scenery. We boost their game for a mighty small percentage of the proceeds.

Why not organize a protective association to save some of the skimmed milk?

Look at the papers and you find subdividers advertising for new "close in" tracts. For a fact, they have "sold out" most of Southern California in the vicinity of Los Angeles. It is no joke when the prospective home owners read:

Only a few lots left at these prices. Better buy yours today or you will pay two profits on the same property.

Folks, these are words of wisdom. Desirable, close-in property has been snapped up by our friends from elsewhere who have come, and seen, and conquered. They are the shrewd ones who are in the vanguard of the ever-increasing number coming here from everywhere.

It is the writer's prediction—and a fairly good guess, too, we believe—that Southern California will be subdivided from Santa Barbara to San Diego; from San Bernardino to the sea.

Until then we will keep the pace that the pessimist tells you will slacken. Of course, you must concede he is correct in the assumption that "there is an end to all things." And some day Southern California real property will reach a standard of stability. But by the same process of reasoning "there is an end to close-in property," and it is fast coming in Glendale and other Los Angeles suburbs.

Better buy your homesite today, and a couple more for your friends!

This is a small world. Only a fraction of the size of Saturn or some of the other bodies in this universe, scientists say.

And these United States are strangely small, we say, after having traveled through half of them.

Then California, big as it is, proves all too small to lose your friends, or residents of your own city. Why, we meet two or three people every day in the Imperial valley whom we have met before. Or sometimes we get to talking with a stranger and find that he lives in Pasadena or Glendale, or has relatives in Tujunga or Burbank.

Last evening in the hotel lobby we met C. E. Quick, a resident of Orange Grove avenue, Glendale, who is chief engineer for the Southern California Supply company. He is here installing a new bake oven.

Another whom we have met before is Paul Rieger, district governor of the Rotary International. He is in Imperial valley this week visiting various clubs. His home is in San Francisco. Think of the fine time he must have visiting friends in this wonderful winter climate, where doors swing wide and overcoats are not needed in one's wardrobe!

Quite a stir has been caused in the Imperial valley by the supreme court decision upholding the state's anti-alien laws. Many of the large landed barons are making considerable noise over the situation. They predict dire things.

But time, and time alone, will prove the wisdom of this recent enactment of the state legislature which prohibits crop-sharing contracts. For it will mean that many of our fertile farms will revert to the small farmer, instead of being owned by capitalists.

It is to be imagined from a cursory survey of the situation in the Imperial valley that fully 50 per cent of property is owned by outside interests. That is economically wrong, for tenant farmers do not make permanent improvements, but simply rob the land of its fertility.

Also, tenant farmers here are a roving class who spend much of their money in Mexico—the widest open town, perhaps, in North America. It may take the concerted effort of the whole United States to uphold what the better citizens along the border consider the prime evil and chief cause of their social, moral and economic turpitude, although we honestly believe that the real cause for idle lands in Imperial valley is due to the power of wealth, rather than anything else.

Glendale is fortunate, indeed, in having few large landholders—in fact, none. When you find a city, or county, or state, or nation where practically everyone shares in the natural wealth, be it a city lot or a 160-acre farm, you will find social and economic conditions very satisfactory.

Therefore, we should lend a hand to the home owner. We should applaud the efforts of the subdivider and builder. We should honor the real estate man, who, without taking an undue measure of profit, goes out and sells his own city and state and country to the people.

Would that eastern cities might learn the lesson seen in Southern California—that of making homes attractive to the worker. Great corporations have found this to be the greatest factor in solving their problem of employment.

Industrial leaders will do well to appreciate the moral found in home ownership.

ROTARY AIDS IN CHEST CAMPAIGN

Devotes Program to Worthy Cause; Speakers Urge Full Co-operation

Upholding their tradition of service to their fellowmen, members of the Glendale Rotary club, yesterday devoted the greater part of its program to the Welfare Chest cause, at its weekly luncheon held in the Citizens' building. After a brief address by Edson R. Waite, of the Shawnee, Okla., Board of Commerce, in which the wide-awake spirit and aggressive-ness of Glendale was praised, President George B. Karr, Rotary chairman, turned the meeting over to W. E. Hewitt, chairman of the Welfare Chest committee.

Reports from captains of the various districts showed that less than one-fifth of the $40,000 Community Chest sought in the campaign, has been raised. The total reported up to noon yesterday was $7,329.20, with more than half the territory worked in several districts. Yesterday's reported subscriptions to the fund amounted to $2,434.45, while the total for the day before, was $5,391.75.

Rev. Ford is Sucker
Rev. Ernest E. Ford, in a brief address to the Rotary members and Community Chest workers, made an appeal for concerted effort in making the campaign a success. He stressed the importance of backing up kind words and great ideals with a generous amount of worthy deeds, and asked that every person give to the chest to the limit of his ability.

Announcement was made by President Karr, following the Community Chest program, that next week's Rotary luncheon will be held on Wednesday instead of Thursday, due to plans for observing Thanksgiving on the regular meeting day. The luncheon will be held in the Egyptian Village Cafe.

Many Little Red Hearts Are Being Worn In City; Chest Drive Is Under Way

Little red hearts, declaring "I'm in!" are becoming much in evidence in Glendale these days and are being proudly worn by Glendadians who have responded to the fourteen worthy causes presented by the Glendale Welfare chest. The goal of this great, concerted drive is $40,000 and with approximately $7500 pledged up to noon yesterday, predictions are that Glendale will be true to form and "go over the top" with flying colors.

A big corps of public-spirited men and women are busy about the city urging Glendadians to support the drive and are emphasizing that this chest movement will entirely do away with the series of drives that annually confront the citizens of Glendale.

The Welfare Chest was given a prominent place at the meeting of the Rotary club yesterday, and the 150 persons present heard Edson R. Waite, secretary of the Board of Commerce of Shawnee, Okla., congratulate Glendale on the decision for a community chest.

Rev. Ernest E. Ford, Rotarian, also spoke on the benefits of the chest plan and of the duty of every Glendadian to heartily support it.

People Volunteer

More people are volunteering every day to aid in securing pledges, and today at the Kiwanis luncheon at noon at the Tuesday Afternoon club the chest executives were special guests and again told of their work, urging all present to become boosters.

W. E. Hewitt is president of the chest and A. W. Tower is chairman of the campaign committee. There are two general divisions, one under George B. Karr and the other under C. W. Ingledue.

Mr. Ingledue's team, includes W. P. Potter, Charles Stuart, Max L. Green, Francis Gordon, Roy L.

Kent, F. E. Hoyt, Mrs. P. Diedrich, Mrs. J. H. Daugherty, Lyman Clark, Mrs. E. S. McKee, Dr. Pearl Rittenhouse, G. E. Murphy, J. I. Warnette, D. L. Gregg and Mrs. S. Reeve.

Able Assisted
These people are being ably assisted by groups of men and women representing every section of the city and every civic, social, religious, fraternal and educational organization in the city.

The fourteen beneficiaries listed by the chest are American Red Cross, American War Mothers, American Legion Auxiliary, Boy Scouts, Bureau of Catholic Charities, Children's Home Society of California, Children's Hospital Society, Christian Circle Club, Community Service, Glendale Welfare Council, Jewish Charities, Salvation Army, W. C. T. U. and Y. M. C. A.

Police Mistake Posse for Bandits, 4 Shot

BRAZIL, Ind., Nov. 23.—Four men were shot in a battle between Brazil officers and possemen, all of whom were engaged in an effort to apprehend a suspected gang of bank robbers at Cory, fourteen miles southwest of here, early today. The officers mistook the members of the posse for bandits, whom they had been called to help hunt for.

FIRST CAMPAIGN PERIOD NEAR END

One More Day for Members To Gain Big Credit Total For Subscriptions

By J. A. MALCOLM
Manager Salesmanship Club
The end of the first period is now in sight. Just one more day and the end of the first period and big credits will be here. With the end of the first period so close it has caused a great deal of enthusiasm among the club members and some of them who have been lagging behind have suddenly come to life with the realization that they have a good opportunity to win and are working with a new interest in the campaign and, from the manner in which they are working, they will give a good account of themselves before the close of the first period, tomorrow, Saturday night.

Now for the whirlwind finish, now for sensations and surprises. Present leaders must increase their totals mightily if they wish to retain the lead that they have enjoyed thus far and if they wish to secure a good surplus of credits to carry them over the top when the final counting has been made. It is in you to win if you will. This is the final test, these are the days that test your resourcefulness. Here is where your courage upholds you and makes you fight, or the lack of it takes the stiffness out of your knees and leaves you trailing in the dust. "also ran."

Courage Is Needed
If you are one who will not become discouraged and will not tire before the end of the race comes, then you will be one of those who will win one of the grand capital prizes, for it's the worker who wins in a campaign of this kind, and those who devote their time and effort and who do

PICK WINNERS IN VARIETY CONTEST

Seniors and Also Juniors Awarded Places on Program by Judges

As a result of the tryouts yesterday at the high school, of the acts submitted for presentation at the new high school auditorium, on the nights of December 13 and 14, the seniors and juniors were declared the winners, and will have the honor of presenting their acts at the first show to be staged in the new building.

Charlotte Busby, chairman of the senior stunt committee, presented nine girls in a Chauve Sautis drill team, the leader of which was Sarah Chandler. The other girls in the team were: Doris Osmuth, Evelyn Thomas, Ruth Humes, Evelyn Sample, Katherine Stofft, Evelyn Hunt, Margaret Brown and Florence McLaughlin.

The juniors introduced their Rainbow jazz orchestra, composed of Norman Nelson and Wallace Haines, saxophones; Arthur Cressy, drums; Clifford Wolcott, banjo; Henry Grace, piano and Wesley Pomeroy, soloist.

Club Women Thank News For Accurate Accounts Of Federation Activities

That The Glendale Evening News caters to the interests of Glendale club women and is keeping step with the march of district, state and national club events, is voiced in a letter received today from the California Local Biennial board, thanking the News for the publicity given on the occasion of the recent visit to Southern California of Mrs. Thomas Gerald Winter, president of the General Federation.

Some weeks before the Local Biennial Board was formally organized and functioning The Glendale Evening News anticipated Mrs. Winter's arrival with several general club stories. Then when the Biennial Board became active, just before her arrival, The Glendale Evening News' response to their requests for publicity was most hearty.

The club editor of The Glendale Evening News sat with other Southern California club women and members of the Local Biennial Board at luncheon at the Biltmore hotel with Mrs. Winter on the day of her arrival and heard her first message to California women. This luncheon was a complimentary affair, given by the Local Board to press women and other writers.

Reported Activities
Then on November 14, when Mrs. Winter addressed a big gathering of club women at the Trinity Auditorium in Los Angeles, and later was honored with a luncheon at the Biltmore hotel, where 700 women were in attendance, The Glendale Evening

News was represented and a full account of the affair was brought home to Glendale women who were not able to attend. Publicity given in The Glendale Evening News in connection with Mrs. Winter's visit to California is of special significance, for it is included in the 3521 inches of space recorded by the Local Biennial board. Calculating on the average of $4.92 per "column inch," advertising rates, this "publicity" amounts to $17,773.82.

Space Worth $20,000
When a prominent publisher in Los Angeles looked over the calculations of the publicity committee of the Biennial Board, he intimated that the gift of the press to the General Federation of Women's Clubs would approximate $20,000 in the six weeks it has given news service.

DEBATING TEAMS READY FOR BELL

Glendale and San Diego Meet In First Argument of So. Calif. League

The first debate of the Southern California League will be held this evening at the high school auditorium at 8:15, when the Glendale team will meet the debaters from San Diego.

The question to be debated is: "Resolved, that the United States should enter the world court." The affirmative speakers to appear here are Paul Cunningham and Isabel Tousey; the negative debaters who go to San Diego are Horace Anderson and Bonnie Jean Lockwood. Charlotte Busby is the alternate for both sides.

Two judges have been chosen, Dr. Stelter of Occidental college and H. G. Lyman, a Hollywood attorney. The third is yet to be selected. Miss Molly Corry is coach of the Glendale teams, while W. A. Hamman is in charge of the San Diego representatives. Preceding the debate the Girls' Glee club will render two numbers, "A Gondola Song," by Roberts, and "The Mellican Man," by Berk.

CONFESSIONS OF A BABY, CONT.

Baby's Wardrobe

This series on the baby's wardrobe began two weeks ago on Friday, our usual baby day. If you missed these papers, will you please get the back numbers of the newspapers? We haven't them in form to mail to you yet.

This week we are going to discuss one of the most important articles of baby's wardrobe, and that is diapers.

You remember, those of you who have followed the Confessions of the Adorable Sockums, that he said once there were no pins on him; that his mamma had bought a pattern of a fitted napkin that tied by soft tapes, and his were all made on that order. Sometimes the department stores carry these patterns in their baby department. If they don't, you can send me, in care of this newspaper, a self-addressed, stamped envelope, and I will send you the name of the firm that makes these patterns and the pinless baby layettes.

There is no more important article of the baby's wardrobe than his napkins, because deformities can result from an improper napkin or one improperly put on. The common custom of arranging the napkin so that a large wad of cloth is between the little legs and pressing on the important organs in the pelvis, can deform the bones. There is even a possibility that the pressure of heavy masses of cloth on the tender pelvis of girl babies may be the cause of some of the displacements of the internal generative organs, and trouble in later life.

For the first month of baby's life, the napkin made of soft cheese cloth may be used. When they are folded cornerwise three times, making eight thicknesses, they are the right size for the tiny baby. Over this can be used a triangle of Turkish toweling. If you do not use these fitted napkins, then you should fold the napkin squarewise, and put it on the baby so it makes little trousers by pinning twice on each side at the waist and once around each leg. If you do use safety pins, be sure you get a good firm, dependable safety pin—one that will not become unfastened and injure the baby.

Make two dozen 18 by 36 inches, and three dozen 22 by 44, of cotton birdseye.

FASCINATING MODELS FOR AUTUMN

Ever so fascinating is the first of the frocks pictured here. It is carried out in dark blue flat crepe, the skirt having two plaited tiers at the front. The back of the dress hangs in straight lines from shoulder to hem. Turn-back cuffs finish short kimono sleeves. The neck is trimmed with a small collar, but this may be omitted if preferred. Medium size requires 3 7/8 yards 40-inch crepe and 1/2 yard 36-inch lining.

Sandalwood crepe makes up the second model in the latest style. The skirt has gathered side panels, and the blouse fastens slightly to one side. The revers, collar and cuffs are edged with fancy silk braid. If preferred, the panels and revers may be omitted, in which event the model requires 2 1/8 yards less of material. Medium size, as pictured, requires 6 yards 36-inch crepe.

First model: Pictorial Review dress No. 1682. Sizes 34 to 44 inches bust and 16 to 20 years. Price 35 cents. Transfer pattern 12820, blue or yellow. Price 25 cents.

Second model: Dress No. 1683. Sizes 34 to 50 inches bust. Price 35 cents.

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am 18 years old and a senior in high school. I have a girl chum whom I love very dearly. She is also a senior and 17 years old. This girl friend is a lot of fun when you know her, but she has a cold way of acting which causes her to be disliked by people who are not her intimate friends. Boys have no use for her, and when the rest of the girls in our crowd go to a dance she has to stay at home.

My boy friend invited me to a dance one evening when I couldn't accept his invitation because I was going to a cousin's wedding. He seemed disappointed and didn't know whom to take in my place. I suggested my girl friend, and to please me he said he would invite her.

She accepted the invitation gladly and I thought once, at least, she would have a good time. But when I saw her after the dance she said she didn't have a good time. She told me that my boy friend didn't have any manners because he did not take her by the arm when they were crossing the street. Personally I have not noticed a lack of manners in my boy friend, but I have in the girl. He is always kind hearted and ready to make people happy, while she doesn't mind saying blunt and ill-mannered things with the intention of hurting.

I asked my boy friend about the dance and he said it was all right, but he missed me. He told me that he felt in some way he had offended my girl friend because she was so cold and sharp-tongued when she spoke to him. I have wondered if it would do her any good if I told her how people feel about her. She is the kind of person who is very sensitive about her own feelings and question. Be sure to use your full name, street number, and the name of your city and state.—The Editor

BEAUTY CHATS

WELL SHAPED BROWS
Shape them daily with your fingers

The woman with very thin, pallid eyebrows and eyelashes, can always use an eyebrow pencil, and with a little practice, use it so well that no one will know it is an artificial color. She can also use hair tonic on the eyebrows if she is very careful not to spread it too far, and she can use castor oil on eyebrows and eyelashes, too, which will make them thicker and longer and slightly darker. She can, if she is very clever, use the following harmless stain.

Peroxide of manganese 1 dram
Water 1 dram
Glycerine 2 drams

This makes a very dark stain which can be painted on with a small soft brush, which will color only the hairs and give a color that will outlast several washings. When the brush is dipped in the liquid it should be shaken a bit so it is not too wet, for naturally you do not want to get anything into the eyes. The best way to use either this liquid or an eyebrow pencil, is to color the outer part of the lashes away from the skin. That brings out the length of the hairs, makes the eyes seem larger and brighter, and does away with any possibility of staining the skin.

The woman with eyebrows that are too thick, has quite a different problem. She will be able to pull out some of the hairs, not in alignment, with a pair of tweezers, those, for instance, that grow above the eyebrows. Those that grow below, over the eyelids, should not be pulled out, for the skin is too delicate. They should be cut off with a pair of manicure scissors, the points held away from the eyes. This is for those hairs which grow far out of alignment. The rest can be made to lie flat and to give a much better curve, if they are moistened with fresh mucilage, and pinched into shape.

N. A. C.—Egyptian henna is the best kind to use. This will tint the grey hairs, but the condition that is causing dandruff and split ends of hair should be treated also.

Sometimes, when the scalp becomes sluggish, a complete recovery may be obtained merely through a daily massage, if it is done so the circulation is improved. A good tonic added to this several times each week will also be helpful.

Florence K.—Bleach the freckles by using either lemon or cucumber juice.

Tomorrow—Complexion Troubles.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes, in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their own time. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor

England to distinction as college builder and college president. He went to work at the age of 10 in the mines. In 1869 an older brother emigrated to America and saved more money in two years than the entire family had been able to accumulate in eighteen in England.

This affluence decided the parents to come over, setting down at Du Quoin. Young Harker went to work in the mines, but was continually studying. He received no education in schools or colleges, but his knowledge he amassed by application to books during his spare time. The county superintendent of schools was so impressed by the studiousness of the youth that he tendered him a position as teacher at the age of 20.

He became in demand as instructor at teachers' institutes and was finally tendered a position as teacher at Whipple academy, the preparatory department of Illinois college, at Jacksonville. Harker then took up his first college course, being awarded the degree of bachelor of arts in 1888; of master of arts, in 1890; and of doctor of philosophy, in 1893. In the latter year he was chosen president of Woman's college, at Jacksonville.

In 1893 the college property was valued at $50,000. The present valuation is $500,000, while the total endowment and equipment, following the recent campaign, is now estimated at $1,250,000. Dr. Harker has rejected many offers to take the presidency of larger educational institutions, but has remained loyal to Woman's college and is now the senior president among the Methodist institutions of the United States.

Two men who were "something in the city," were lunching at their club one day, says The Tattler, (London). "Oh," said one, "my partner formerly used always to oppose my views, but now he agrees with me in everything."

"How do you account for it?" asked the other. "Don't know," said the first. "I'm not sure whether I convince him, or only make him tired."

Generous reader friends have contributed these fine recipes for other readers to enjoy:

Macaroni Salad—Mix together three-quarters of a cup of sugar, one teaspoon of mustard, one teaspoon of salt, one tablespoon of flour, one well-beaten egg and one cup of vinegar; cook this mixture till thick, then add to it a piece of butter the size of an egg. In the meantime, cook macaroni in salted water till done, then rinse it in cold water; add to the macaroni at once either one small teaspoon of celery or a small quantity of celery-stalk cut into bits, three small chopped raw onions, three chopped pimientos. Mix well, then add the salad dressing while still warm. Let stand a few hours before serving. Just before putting it on the table add to it one cup of heavy cream which you have whipped stiff. This is a delicious salad. Here is another good recipe:

"Green Tomato Minicmeat"—(Your readers can use this next fall if it is too late to do so this year.) One peck of green tomatoes chopped fine. Pour boiling water through them three times (to wash all the green juice out), then add five pounds of sugar, two pounds of raisins, one cup of chopped suet, two tablespoons of salt; boil this mixture till well cooked, then add to it one cup of vinegar and two tablespoons each of ground cinnamon, nutmeg and cloves. Bring to boiling point again and seal at once in hot, sterilized glass jars. I wonder if all your readers know how to be sure of good results in whipping cream? Here is my way:

"To Whip Cream Successfully: Whipped cream will always be heavy enough to stand alone if you cut up five or six marshmallows in small pieces and add these to one-half pint of cream, then stand the heavy cream on ice or in some very cold place for three hours before whipping it.—Mrs. L. D.

"Lemon Pudding"—Put on fire, to boil, one cup of boiling water, juice of one lemon and one-half cup of sugar well mixed together. When it is boiling, stir into it a paste consisting of one heaping tablespoon of cornstarch, one-half cup more of sugar, a pinch of salt and just enough water to moisten well. Remove the mixture from the range when it becomes thick enough to coat a spoon, and beat it, while still hot, into the stiffly whipped white of two eggs. Let cool and serve with a simple boiled custard sauce.—Mrs. F.

TODAY—Miscellaneous Paris Notes.

By ALICE LANGELELLER
By International News Service

PARIS, Nov. 23.—Frogs fell mysteriously from the skies during a recent violent thunderstorm at Osmes, in the Ardennes. When the sky cleared, hundreds of frogs were jumping about in the streets and hopping into the houses, where the housewives chopped off their legs and popped them into the frying pan. It was a "big day" for the inhabitants of Osmes. As a matter of fact, the "French froggies," as the soldiers named them, know little of the delights of this rare delicacy. High prices put them out of reach and the American is about the only one who can enjoy frogs' legs in a Paris restaurant.

Bread prices continue to go up and down like a barometer. When flour goes up the bakers insist upon higher prices for their bread. They want to make the price automatically variable with the rates for flour, but their request has been refused, at least for the moment. One may think that a matter of one "sou" or two on a two-pound loaf is a little thing to haggle over, but the thrifty French housewife who has many mouths to feed knows that the extra sous soon make a franc or two. For bread is really the staff of life for every Frenchman and France without bread would mean a revolution.

Speaking about high prices, they have brought about a curious change of customs. Instead of flowers it is now quite the fashion to send a basket of luscious fruit to the "star" at her first performance. Fruits in season or those out are always desired and infinitely more useful than the loveliest flowers, which fade within too short a time.

Regular courses of eyebrow training are being started in Paris for women who wish to take the curve from their eyebrows. The style now calls for straight ones, according to the chic coiffures. They must follow in the footsteps of the slim silhouette and plucked to make a thin straight line.

The first attempt at a kind of women students' dormitory has just been completed in the old Latin Quarter. Women students attending the Paris university and other colleges are less fortunate than American girls, who have pleasant houses on the campus to live in. French girls have rooms here and there near the schools and take their meals in cheap restaurants nearby. This means that there is little of the jolly dormitory life which all girls remember. The new building is expected to help fill in this gap and is reserved exclusively for women registered in Paris schools. The rooms are fresh and light with new clean furnishings. There is a restaurant which offers well-cooked food at a minimum price, and on top of all is a delightful terrace-promenade with gardens and lounges overlooking a quaint section of the students' quarters.

An eye or a tooth—that was the question in the curious case of an eye-tooth and even molars growing upward and issuing from the socket of a French girl in southern France. Her right orbit was literally fringed with teeth and the excrescences soon led to such trouble that it was necessary to decide between the eye and the teeth. A surgeon of the French Academy of Medicine performed an operation which proved to be a complete success and the girl's eyesight is now perfectly restored.

Thrice named and then some is the record of the Place de la Concorde, which has changed nomenclature seven times in the course of a little less than two centuries. From 1777 to 1779 it was called "Place Louis XV." In 1792 it became "Place de la Revolution." "Place de la Concorde" in 1795, back again to "Louis XV" in 1814, "Place Louis XVI" in 1826, "Place Louis XV" for the third time in 1828 and "Place de la Concorde" for the second and last time in 1830. This is the name it still bears, but sharp eyes can distinguish in faint letters beneath "Place Louis XV."

"Lingerie de la Princess Mary" reads a little sign in a coquettish lingerie shop in the fashionable Rue St. Honore. The ingenious proprietress, realizing that everybody can not be the "Princess of the Queen," by Special Appointment," etc., etc., has chosen the Princess Mary. She probably hopes that some day the distinguished lady will pass by the little shop, smile, walk in and make a small purchase, which will enable her to procure a sumptuous and much-coveted diploma.

CUPID BRINGS HER NEW JOY

Widow Of Caruso Will Wed Soon, Is Report

Mrs. Enrico Caruso, who will soon wed in England, is reported

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Love has again entered the life of Mrs. Enrico Caruso, widow of the wonder-tenor, who braved the ill-will of her father to marry the singer.

That Dan Cupid has healed the wound in her heart caused by the death of Caruso, and has found some one to bring back the sunlight is revealed in the announcement by her family here that the widow is to marry Capt. E. A. Ingram, wealthy Scot. The marriage is to occur soon in England.

The widow of the famous opera star was Dorothy Sparks Benjamin before her marriage. During Mr. Caruso's last illness, which culminated in his death in Naples on August 2, 1921, Mrs. Caruso was his constant attendant. They had been married a few days less than five years, since August 20, 1916, when Miss Benjamin braved the displeasure of her father, the late Paul Benjamin, and became the wife of the tenor.

Made Her Debut in 1914. Miss Benjamin made her debut in 1914. Two years later the sudden announcement of her engagement came as a surprise, a very unwelcome one to her father, formerly a patent attorney and editor of the Scientific American from 1863 to 1878. Only a few friends attended Caruso and Miss Benjamin when they went to the Marble Collegiate church, where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Oliver Paul Barnhill. The estate left by Caruso, which included an annual income from royalties on phonograph records estimated at $250,000, an Italian estate of 20,000,000 lire and real estate in New York valued at between $150,000 and $200,000, was divided by agreement of the heirs in December, 1921.

Under the terms of the agreement half of the estate went to his daughter, Gloria, now 4 years old. The balance was divided equally among Mrs. Caruso, two natural sons of the tenor, Rodolfo and Enrico, Jr., and the singer's brother, Giovanni.

Wider Estrangement Ensued. Whatever resentment Park Benjamin may have felt at the marriage of his daughter against his wishes later was lost sight of in an estrangement which included his whole family and led, on his death, to his children being excluded from the will. The bulk of the estate was left to an adopted daughter, Anna Bolchi Benjamin, who had formerly been a governess in the Benjamin household.

At the time of her marriage to Caruso, Miss Benjamin's age was given as 25. The singer was then twenty years older.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

BY HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY'S SLIPPERY SLIDE rabbit started to slide down one of the long logs covered with frost. Along he slid, as he had on the walk at home, faster and faster. "Two can play at that game!" snapped the Gator. The bad chap ran after Uncle Wiggily, and the Alligator started to slide. But he tripped on the slippery slide and fell, bumping his nose very hard. "Oh, scowzie wow!" bellowed the Gator. "Oh, what a crack!" and he fell off the log, bumping and scratching himself. "What are you sliding on?" asked the muskrat lady. "It didn't snow during the night, did it? What is that white stuff on the boards?" "It is frost—a heavy frost almost as thick as snow," replied the rabbit gentleman. "In the night the dew fell—a heavy dew, leaving the boards very wet. Then, a little later, Jack Frost touched the drops of dew with his cold fingers, and froze them. Now I have a slippery slide—hurry!" Up the path ran the bunny, and once more down the walk he slid. "Come on!" he called to Nurse Jane. "It's fun!" "I have something else to do in the morning, than taking slides," said the muskrat lady. Nurse Jane was a very serious person. You might say, with a one-track mind. "You don't know what you are missing," laughed the bunny. "If you took a few slides now it would limber you up and you would feel more like working the rest of the day. Look at me! I—er—" And just then Uncle Wiggily's hind paws shot from under him, and down he fell on the slippery slide—"kerbunko!" "Yes! Look at you!" laughed Nurse Jane, when she saw that the bunny wasn't hurt. "I suppose you want me to do something like that." "No—not at all," slowly replied the rabbit. "That was an accident. But it was jolly fun. I'll take another slide." So he slid and slipped on the frosty boards, until the sun rose high and warm and melted the white snow crystals. Then there was no more sliding for a time. "Well, now I feel like going out and having an adventure," said the bunny gentleman to himself. "I hope you have a good one," murmured Nurse Jane, who was getting ready to go to the store for a quart of yeast cakes and basket of molasses—or something like that. Uncle Wiggily hopped over the fields and through the woods, looking here and there for adventures. But he did not find any. At last he reached a deep, dark valley—a place between two hills where the sun could not shine in except during the long summer days. And now it was close to winter. "I shall go into this valley and see if there is an adventure here," said the rabbit to himself. So into the dark, cold valley between the hills hopped the rabbit gentleman. Scattered about were fallen logs, that had once been trees. Off some of these logs the bark was stripped and on the white, smooth wood, the glistening frost lay heavy and thick, as it had on the board walk in front of Uncle Wiggily's bungalow. "Ha! I could have a slippery slide here if I wanted to," thought the rabbit, as he saw a long smooth log covered with frost. "Uncle Wiggily will not come here to melt the slippery frost. One could slide here all day." Uncle Wiggily was just going to take a slide on one of the long, fallen logs, when, all of a sudden, there was a rustling in the bushes and out sprang the Skillery Seal-jerry Alligator. "Ho! Ho!" rumbled the Gator. "What are you doing in my valley?" "I didn't know it was your valley, but I came in to find an adventure," answered the bunny politely. "Well, it is my valley," snarled the Gator. "And your adventure will be to have your ears nibbled. Here I come to nibble them!" "Oh, do you?" sweetly asked Uncle Wiggily. "Well, first you must catch me." With that, the

Dinner Stories

A Washington newspaper man relates in Everybody's that with the coming of spring the usual fever of that season asserted itself, and he took the opportunity of running into Virginia for a fishing trip. Becoming interested in a discussion of the merits of the various fish in the Virginia streams, he turned at length to the old negro boatman and said: "Uncle, don't you think yellow perch is altogether the best fish in the river?" "Yessuh," replied the old man. "Yaller perch am de bes' fish here, always scusin' de white shad."

MONTICELLO SHOULD BELONG TO NATION, SAYS COMMONER

That Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, should be the property of the United States, and not of any individual or group, is the opinion of W. J. Bryan, who is taking an active part in the nation-wide campaign to raise $100,000 for the purchase and permanent maintenance of the property of the Jefferson Memorial Foundation to attest his deep interest in the movement. Mr. Bryan summed up his appreciation of Thomas Jefferson in these words:

"Jefferson was the greatest statesman known to history and the father of democracy in America. His faith in the people was an inspiration to his generation, and his knowledge of human nature enabled him to estimate the value of popular government and to foresee its growth throughout the world. He did not invent the spirit of liberty, for that has been in the heart of man from the beginning of the race, but he gave expression to human aspirations and coined the words through which freedom speaks. His services to the United States, and through the United States to all nations, cannot be estimated. For more than twenty-five years I have cherished the hope that Monticello would some day belong to the public. The need of this would not be so great if Mr. Levy could live always, because he has taken pride in taking care of the place. But life is uncertain, and it would be a great misfortune if the property fell into the hands of one who did not prize it as a sacred spot. I am gratified that its transfer to the public is now so nearly assured."

REP. FRED ALBERT BRITTEN

When congress convenes this coming winter Rep. Fred Albert Britten of Illinois will again become one of the leading workers for the soldier bonus measure and other legislation intended to aid the soldier veterans.

Britten is already getting his forces lined up to force to passage the bonus measure, which failed to go through before the last congress adjourned. Britten has represented his district in congress since 1913. He still lives in his native city, Chicago. He was born November 18, 1871. He has been in the general building and construction there since 1894 and is now the senior member of the firm of Britten and Reynolds. His first political office was that of ward alderman, from 1908 to 1912. He took an active part in war

Kellogg's Bran gives permanent relief because it is ALL BRAN!

Every member of your family will enjoy better health—eat better, work better, sleep better—if they eat Kellogg's Bran regularly. Its natural, positive work for health is actually a blessing to humanity! Kellogg's gives permanent relief from constipation because it is ALL BRAN! It is scientifically prepared to relieve suffering instantly from constipation. Kellogg's Bran cleans and purifies the intestinal tract; it clears away toxic poisons and frees you from the dangers of many dreaded diseases, as well as from sick headaches, rheumatism and mental and physical depression. A week's trial of this great natural food will prove that its work for health is wonderful! Consider Kellogg's Bran as a food. It is not a laxative nor a medicine. Bran is the outer coating of whole wheat and contains such nourishment factors as mineral salts and other elements vital in sustaining life! Kellogg's Bran is cooked and all ready to eat. It is delightful as a cereal, or sprinkled over your favorite hot or cold cereal. Another popular way to eat it is to cook or mix it with a hot cereal. In preparation, add two tablespoonsful of bran for each person. Delicious bakery batches are made with Kellogg's Bran. Recipes are printed on each package. DO TWO THINGS—Eat Kellogg's Bran each day for permanent relief from constipation and be certain to eat at least two tablespoonfuls; in chronic cases, with each meal. First-class hotels, clubs and restaurants serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. Ask for it at your restaurant. All grocers.

British Drugs Impure, Inaccurate, Is Claim

LONDON, Nov. 23.—That one prescription in every five made up by drug stores in England is inaccurate is the charge made by the ministry of health analysis experts in their annual report just issued.

"Of 429 prescriptions analyzed 96, or about one in five were found to be inaccurate, as compared with 29 out of 178 in 1921," says the report. Coupled with this statement of the apparent carelessness of the English drug store clerk is the disquieting information to the Britisher that the percentage of adulteration of drugs increased from 6.7 per cent to 7.3 per cent during 1922. Adverse reports were made on 426 samples out of 5,863 samples taken.

Can Lower Taxes and Pay Bonus Too, M'Adoo

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—In a statement, issued here yesterday afternoon, William Gibbs M'Adoo, former secretary of the treasury, repeated his statements that taxes can be reduced and soldiers' bonus can be paid as well.

"This can be done by issuing fifty year bonds for the amount required," the statement read. "The interest charge, including a sufficient sinking fund provision at five per cent, would be $77,400,000 per annum. Deduct this from the $323,000,000 tax reduction proposed by the secretary of the treasury, and we have a net reduction in taxes of $245,600,000, and the soldiers' bonus would be paid."

Rocky Pacific Island to Have Lighthouse

HONOLULU, Nov. 23.—The Hawaiian department of the army is co-operating with the Federal Lighthouse Service in plans to map the small rock island of Kaula, which rises hundreds of feet above the Pacific at a point thirty-five miles south of the island of Kauai. Work will start soon. Two twin-motored Martin army bombing planes will be taken to Kauai aboard the light-house tender Kukui, unloaded, and from there fly to the objective. Photographs of the rock will be taken and a complete mosaic formed. The work is preliminary to establishing a beacon light on the island.

Winter Sports Soon to Start in Colorado

DENVER, Nov. 23.—Winter sports in Colorado will soon be under way. With nearly two feet of snow packing the slopes, the ski course on Mt. Genesee, twenty-five miles west of this city, is reported in ideal condition and scores of enthusiasts who have become imbued with the sport of the Vikings are forming a team to participate in the great winter sport of skiing. Special takeoffs at various heights will be erected so that tyro and professional may have conditions right for his favorite jump.

SHIPYARDS TO CITY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The United States shipping board has decided to sell the Skinner Eddy yards at Seattle, Wash., to the city of Seattle for $600,000. It has been announced officially. The equipment in the yards will be placed on sale at a later date. It is expected to bring about $200,000.

BURBANK CLAIMS S. P. MAY START INDUSTRY

Plant With 7000 Employees Is Burbank Possibility, Declares Speaker

An industry may be located in Burbank by the Southern Pacific, with 7000 people on the payroll, declared Oliver O. Clark of Glendale recently, in addressing a gathering at Benmar Hills.

Mr. Clark, as secretary-treasurer of the American Agar company, is in a position to know something of the railroad's plans for this city, and while his remarks were entirely unofficial, they serve to indicate what may be in store for residents who have placed their faith in Burbank.

Lee Cordes, alias Lee Cortez, charged with the robbery of the State bank of Burbank on November 5, is being investigated by the Los Angeles County Lunacy commission. His case has meanwhile been stricken from the calendar of Judge Aver's department of the Los Angeles superior court.

Should it be proved that Cordes is suffering from an incurable disease of the brain, as is believed, he will be remanded to the state asylum for the insane. Otherwise he will later be tried on the robbery charge.

W. A. Thompson, president of the Burbank Realty board, was one of those who recently appraised the 600-acre tract two miles north of San Fernando, upon which the United States government proposes to erect a $2,000,000 hospital for disabled ex-service men.

The Burbank Municipal band will give their first indoor concert 8 o'clock tonight, November 23, in the auditorium of the Thomas A. Edison school. The concert will be free for all, it is announced, and will supplant the proposed Merchants' day program of Saturday.

That this concert will be a fine one, goes without saying, to all who heard the band play at their open air concert recently. The following program is announced:

March—"A Warrior Bold," Pafella.
Overture—"Princess of India," K. L. King.
Duet—"Underneath the Mellow Moon" Hall, (Mesdames Fischer and Jones).
Fox Trot—"When Will the Sun Shine for Me," Davis and Silver.
Intermission.
March—"Washington Grays," Grafella.
Selection—"The Burgomaster," arranged by W. H. Mackie.
Intermezzo—"Flower Girl," Wenrich.
March—"The War Correspondent," G. E. Holmes.
Finale—"Star Spangled Banner."

EAGLE ROCK $150,000 GIFT IN MEMORY OF WIFE

Women's Dormitory to Be Built in Honor of Mrs. Orr At Occidental

William Mead Orr of Alhambra, trustee of Occidental college, has donated $150,000 to this institution for the erection of a new women's dormitory, it is announced by President Remsen du Bois Bird, president.

The donation is made in memory of Mr. Orr's wife, who recently died. Myron Hunt, Occidental's architect, is reported to have plans for the structure already under way.

It will occupy a slightly position near the president's home and will be one of the finest buildings of the institution.

Playground Plans
At a meeting of the Occidental-York Valley Improvement association to be held the night of November 26 at the Occidental Presbyterian church, securing of a playground will, according to Mrs. H. R. Collins, be considered more fully.

Mr. Raiff, superintendent of playgrounds of the city of Los Angeles, has promised to be present. The original plan to locate such a playground nearer the center of Eagle Rock has been abandoned, she states, because no satisfactory ten-acre tract was available.

Plans for establishing a fire station in this district will also come before this meeting.

With 350 members on the Eagle Rock Parent-Teacher association rolls, Mrs. J. C. Reiter, president, feels that the body is in a position to accomplish a great deal of good during the fall and winter.

Particularly with the treasury augmented by $450 recently taken in at the Harvest Home Festival.

Old Melodies Dec. 1
The younger generation will have plenty of competition at the Women's Twentieth Century club dance, scheduled for the night of December 1 at the clubhouse, for mother and father will be there and even grandpa and grandpa will limber up their joints to the tune of those old melodies they will hear.

The fox trot will have to split honors with the Virginia reel and the old-fashioned waltz will make the modern variety watch its step. A number of special features, however, will serve to keep things at a high pitch of merit.

This is a repetition of the affair that scored such a success last year. Those in charge are Mesdames G. E. Arbogast, C. W. Young and L. M. Maynard.

EQUINE ELITE TO ATTEND K. C. SHOW

Best Blooded Horses of East and West Will Enter American Royal

By W. F. SULLIVAN
For International News Service
KANSAS CITY, Nov. 23.—Pretty, prancing beauties, blue bloods of the equine family, will vie for national honors at the American Royal Horse Show, which will be held here November 20 to 24.

Prize winners of the East will be matched against the cream of the West, in the finest array of horse flesh displayed here in many years, when judges will determine which section of the country can claim the nation's finest.

Champions of the season's Eastern shows and champions of Western shows this year are entered, bringing to the Kansas City show the purest horse blood from the best stables of the country.

Many Champions
Thoroughbreds with pedigrees showing sires and mothers of distinction, and with numerous blue ribbons dangling from their harness, will show their class in an exhibition that will be replete with brilliancy along with feats and stunts in driving and daring.

The famous jumpers from the United States Army cavalry stables, at Fort Leavenworth and Fort Riley, will be here for the stunt contests. These horses are now touring Eastern cities, where they have carried off many blue ribbons.

Polo ponies, who twist and turn in flashes, are entered in large numbers and are expected to give the crowds a few thrills with their exhibition.

Famed Mares Enter
The famous brown mares owned by Mrs. John R. Thompson, of Chicago, with a long record of victories, including several blue ribbons, won this year in the East, are among the prize entries. Their owner will hold the reins at the show.

These two beauties will again be matched against the chestnut mares of the local stable, owned by Mrs. Louis Long Combs, which won first honors in last year's show. The Thompson mares took second prize last year.

Other prize winners have been entered by O. B. Brown, Berlin, N. H.; O. H. Gray, Minneapolis; W. R. Mayer, Dallas; Mrs. J. K. Dering, Chicago; Mrs. William E. Dee, Chicago; George W. Heyl & Son, Washington, Ill.; August A. Busch, Jr., St. Louis, and Gorham & Simpson, of Morris, Ill.

George J. Peak, of Winchester, Ill., winner last year, with his roadsters, and a noted horseman, has entered his ribbon winners for the coming show.

One More Day of First Period Left

not let others discourage them, will eventually carry away the worth while prizes.

After reading this you still have another day in which to secure the subscriptions to apply on the first period. There are hundreds of subscriptions to be had for the asking and those who work hard will be the winners.

Don't let your friends or those who have promised to subscribe put you off until later but go to them right away and show them where you get more credit on the subscriptions today and tomorrow than at any other time and make them give you that long promised subscription today.

It will mean everything to you if you make a big showing during the first period for the others will have to secure just that many more subscriptions during the second or third period to catch up with you.

The next twenty-four hours promises to be the liveliest part of the campaign and only second to the final day, December 20th. It's not what you have done in the past but what you do in the next twenty-four hours that will decide to a certain extent which one of the many prizes will be awarded to you for your time and effort spent in getting the subscriptions.

The campaign department will remain open until nine o'clock tomorrow night and will remain open even later if necessary to take care of the collections of the club members, but in the event that you are going to be late be sure and phone the campaign managers and they will wait for you in order to give you every opportunity to get all of your subscriptions in the first period.
